

Miss Ivory Speaks Vows At Nuptial High Mass

A reception at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club followed the wedding ceremony Saturday uniting Helen Ruth Ivory and John Leslie Primmer. The rites were held at a nuptial high mass at noon in St. Hugo of the Hills Church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Ivory II, 2976 Massfield Drive, Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Richard Primmer of St. Clair Shores.

The bride wore an ivory satin gown, its bodice and full skirt appliqued with seed pearls and embroidered Alencon lace. A chapel train completed the fashion.

Her silk illusion veil was secured by a satin pillbox trimmed in lace, and she carried a bouquet of mums and trailing ivy.

MARY PATRICIA IVORY was selected to serve as maid of honor, while attendants were Mrs. William Hankins and Janet Ivory, Margaret Primmer was junior bridesmaid.

They wore gowns of candle-light-hued jacquard brocade designed with long valvet back casings of olive green for the bridesmaids and gold velvet for the maid of honor. They carried fall bouquets of tropicana roses, fil mauve and ivy.

William Clements served as best man, while ushers were William Hankins, Ronald Pasaretti, Robert Strang, William Ptashnik and Arthur Gage.

Following their wedding trip to Florida, the newlyweds will make their home on Crooks Road.

Conference Brings VIP's

Birmingham's First Methodist Church was host to the midwest conference of Faith at Work over the week end of Sept. 25, numerous VIP's arriving for the event. Among them were Mrs. E. Ross Adair and Geraldine Conway (from left), who were honored at a tea during their stay given by Mrs. Mel Correll of 768 Suffield Road. Mrs. Adair, whose husband is Congressman from Indiana, came from her home in Fort Wayne and Mrs. Conway, a lay speaker in the Methodist Church, arrived from her home in Lucasville, O. Another guest, Alicia Abrahamson Davison, was here from Washington, D.C., where she is official hostess at Fellowship House, ICL headquarters on Embassy Row.

Miss Szymke Is Bride

Laura Ann Szymke became the bride of Dr. Richard Karl Dortzbach at a double-ring ceremony in the First Methodist Church of Birmingham on Sept. 5. The Rev. Herbert Haase officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Szymke of Westmoor Road, Birmingham. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Karl Dortzbach of Chevy Chase, Md., and the late Dr. Dortzbach.

The bride's gown was of duchesse taffeta fashioned with a semi-bellied skirt from which a court train extended. She wore a veil of lined illusion gathered to a circlet of lace petals trimmed with pearls, and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses, stephanotis and ivy.

PATRICIA ANN WARD of Portland, Me., was maid of honor, and Mrs. Kent Neff of Philadelphia, Pa., sister of the groom, a bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in floor-length sheaths of pale gold silk-acetate with matching bows at headresses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Szymke wore a dinner sheath and jacket of peacock blue brocade while Mrs. Dortzbach chose a dress of blue chiffon.

Serving as best man was the groom's brother-in-law, Kent Neff of Philadelphia, Pa. The ushers were Robert Szymke and Dr. Donald McIntyre of Madison, Wis.

The Rev. Dortzbach, a cousin of the groom, gave the blessing at the reception.

Following a reception and dinner for 80 guests at Devon Gables in Bloomfield Hills, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in northern Michigan. They will make their home in Madison, Wis., for the duration of Dr. Dortzbach's residency in ophthalmology at University Hospitals.
