Christmas Project To Furnish Ranch

As workmen complete the new $120,000 Boys' Ranch at Camp Oakland, members of the Women's Committee for the camp are working to provide furnishings for it. Current fund-raising project for Mrs. Ben D. Mills and her committee is the sale of Camp Oakland's three Christmas cards. Mrs. L. W. Newbern is rallying the card delivery crew, which she heads, to begin work this week.

Monday Mrs. Newbern was hostess to the drivers of a fleet of delivery cars at her home on Oakland Hills Drive, Bloomfield Township. After morning coffee, the delivery crew members left with the first filled Christmas card orders.

CAMP OAKLAND'S three Christmas greetings were created especially for the camp for underprivileged children by contributing artists Elinor Perrin of Pontiac, Joseph J. DeFrancesco, of Mt. Clemens and Dorothy (Mrs. James S.) Siddall of 31163 Sheridan, Beverly Hills.

General chairman of the card sale is Mrs. William B. Calhoun, Jr., of Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Township.

SELECTING furnishings for the new Boys' Ranch is the assignment of Women's Committee member Mrs. John E. Sheinfeld of Bennington Road, Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. Sheinfeld's skill as a volunteer decorator made the Girls' Ranch at Camp Oakland into a charming home instead of an institution. She plans to achieve the same warm atmosphere for the boys. All of them are wards of Oakland County Probate Court. Without Boys' Ranch, they might

Newlyweds To Live In Ann Arbor

A home in Ann Arbor awaits the newly-wedded Mr. and Mrs. Jordan David Lewis, who were wed Sept. 29 at the North Shore Congregation Israel in Glencoe, Ill.

The bride, the former Lynn Lopata, is the daughter of Mrs. Ralph Keller Jr., 1021 Donmar Court, Birmingham, and Edwin Lopata of St. Louis, Mo. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Lester R. Winteritz of Winnetka, Ill., and the late Mr. Murray Lewis.

The new Mrs. Lewis wore an ivory peau de soie sheath gown, its bodice encrusted with pearls and beading, and enhanced with a cathedral train. Her silk veil was secured by a pearl embroidered coronet, and she carried orchids and stephanotis.

WEARING floor-length Empire gowns designed in moss green velvet were Mrs. Michael Maremont of Glencoe, matron of honor; Gail Lopata, the bride's sister and maid of honor; and bridesmaids: Gina Lopata of Birmingham, another sister of the bride; Gail Lewis of New York City, the groom's sister; and Mrs. Robert Simon of St. Louis, Mo.

Assisting the bridegroom was the best man, James Waidley of Erie, Pa. Seating the guests were Michael Maremont, the bride's

St. Hugo's Scene of Wedding Rites

St. Hugo of the Hills Church was the setting for the marriage of Susan Jeanette Schultz to Gary Constant Klepper at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 26.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. James Walter Schultz of Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Klepper, 16244 Lauderdale, Beverly Hills.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of lace over silk designed with a tulip-shaped skirt and matching bolero jacket. A floor-length lace veil complemented the gown, and she carried white chrysanthemums.

Deborah Sabo, a cousin of the bride who was chosen as maid of honor, wore a pale green satin gown.

The bride's going-away costume was a royal blue and black checked suit.

Following a reception at the home of the bridegroom, the newlyweds left for a camping and canoe trip to Canada.

MRS. J. D. LEWIS

MRS. G. C. KLEPPER

All the attendants wore identical floral wreaths of yellow, gold and bronze chrysanthemums in their hair and carried bouquets of the same floral arrangements.

Tom Angell of Beverly-Hills assisted the bridegroom as best man, while ushers were Norman, William and Richard Schultz, brothers of the bride, and Ray and Robert Klepper, brothers of the bridegroom.

Following a reception at the home of the bride, the newlyweds left for a Northern Michigan honeymoon. They will make their home in Troy.
