

Local Women Go to MSU For Meeting

Mrs. Mayford Roark, vice president of the Foundation for Emotionally Disturbed Children at Pontiac State Hospital and special tutor for children at the hospital, attended a state leadership conference to survey issues for improved services to mentally ill and emotionally handicapped children.

Mrs. Margaret Cameron and Mrs. George Mosher, both of Birmingham, and Mr. Roark attended the conference with Mrs. Roark, Oct. 13.

The conference was held at the Kollage Center for Continuing Education, Michigan State University, and was co-sponsored by Michigan Department of Mental Health, Michigan Society for Mental Health and Michigan State University.

THE INTRODUCTION speaker was Robert A. Kimmich, M.D., director, Michigan Department of Mental Health. Five surveying issues were studied under the chairmanship and direction of James M. McHugh, M.D., Birmingham; Eli Z. Rubin, Ph.D., Lafayette Clinic, Detroit; Jose J. Linares, M.D., director, Child Guidance Clinic, Jackson; Clark Shanahan, Judge of Probate, Shiawassee County, and W. Mason Matthews, Ph.D., Merrill Palmer Institute, Detroit.

Dr. McHugh, who is also a board member of FEIC, was speaker and chairman of the group studying children's units at State Hospitals.

MRS. D. M. ANSON

Judith Frost, Derek Anson Repeat Vows

Judith Florence Frost became the bride of Derek Michael Anson of New York City, Sept. 19 wearing a gown of ivory Brussels lace. The 5:30 p.m. ceremony was held at the Redeemer Lutheran Church in Birmingham.

Parents of the newweds are Mr. and Mrs. Jerrold A. Frost, 1530 N. Cranbrook Road, and Major Ellis Anson of Dromore, Devon, England, and Mrs. A. M. Anson, Lynington - Hampshire, England.

A full chapel train of ivory ottoman enhanced the bride's full length bell skirt. A small crown of matching Brussels lace secured her waist-length veil of imported illusion, and she carried a sheaf of ivory roses.

Soon to Wed

MRS. MARK Jung, sister of the bride, served as the matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of Havana peau de soie and carried a sheaf of tropical roses.

The groom asked Jerrold Armour Frost, Jr., brother of the bride, to serve as best man. Seating guests was Mark Jung, usher.

The bride's mother wore an Adele Simmons large brocade dinner suit enhanced with a satin loa, while the mother of the groom was attired in a turquoise chiffon embroidered gown.

An evening reception was later held at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club which honored the newweds.

Following their honeymoon to Mexico, the Ansons will make their home in New York City.
