'Round the Clock With Bride-Elect

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Canoeing, Tent-Living Highlights Vacation

BY GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Ever think of taking a little vacation just to get away from it all?

Dr. and Mrs. John Lichtwardt of Raymond Place found the perfect spot to get away from it all. They went to Ely, Minn., and from there they went on a canoe trip through the Quetico Provincial Park.

For one week they lived in a tent in the wilderness and viewed the beautiful scenery, wildlife, deer and beavers. Needless to say, after a week in the great outdoors and paddling the streams, the Lichtwardts came back to the area completely refreshed.

OFF AND RUNNING in the 1964-65 season are some of the various garden clubs in the area. The Still Meadow Garden Club will meet on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Al Roberts on Larkwood Court. At this time the members will hear a talk and view color slides of the New York World's Fair.

The program will be presented by William Jessup of the Detroit Edison Co.

THE LONE PINE Garden Club (member of the Federated Garden Clubs) will meet on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Albert Hastings on Malibu Drive. Contestees will be Mrs. Charles Lloyd and Mrs. Donald Johnson.

Mrs. Mable Schultz, of "Mable's Herb and Flower Shop" will be on hand to show Christmas Decorations to the members. From this showing, the members will decide which decorations they would like to create at their November work-

Margaret, 9; Kathy, 8; Jack, 6; Michael, 3; and Patricia, 1.

ANOTHER NEW family at 6138 Worthington are the G. A. Wiseman's. The Wisemans former home was Essex, England. They moved to the Wing Lake area just three weeks ago. Mr. Wiseman is associated with the overseas tractor division of Ford Motor Co. The Wisemans have two sons. They are Paul, 8, a student at Wing Lake School and Andrew, 5, shop. Mrs. Schultz will also be in attendance at the November meeting to assist the members.

MEMBERS of the Foxcroft branch, Women's National Farm and Garden Association, held their meeting on Monday at Haven Hill Lodge in Milford.

The ladies gathered at 11 p.m. at the Commons in Foxcroft and boarded a bus for the trip to the Highland Recreation area where Haven Hill is located. Theme of the meeting was "Leave the Driving to Us."

Following luncheon, Mr. Walter Vandien, who is education consultant for the conservation department, gave an interesting and informative program.

MRS. HARRY ODLE of Worthington Road and Mrs. Lee Moulis of Wing Lake Road gave a welcoming coffee recently for their new neighbor, Mrs. John Cavanaugh.

"Wing Lake neighbors gathered at the Moulis' home to welcome Mrs. Cavanaugh and also say hello to Miss Catrina Quintus of Ruffalo, N. Y. Miss Quintus was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Odle for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cavanaugh moved to the area recently from Peekskill, N. Y. Mr. Cavanaugh is associated with General Motors Corp. He attended Boston College and Mrs. Cavanaugh attended Emmanuel College, also in Boston. The Cavanaugh children are
