Son, William, and his wife, who had been living with the Koehlers, received his U.S. Air Force orders to proceed to Vance Air Force Base in Oklahoma, and departed an hour later the same morning.

William received his lieutenant's commission through the R.O.T.C. at Purdue University in August and will be spending the next five years in the Air Force. He began flight school training on Oct. 4, while Mrs. K. is busy settling their new apartment in nearby Enid.

THE FRANCIS SHAW'S of Meadowlane Drive spent a leisurely 10 days traveling through the East recently. While in New York they made their headquarters in Long Island and took the electric each morning to the world's Fair. After a few days they journeyed on to Bedford Springs, Pa.

and then to Fairmont, W. Va., where they visited friends, the Paul Donhams.

In September, daughter Karen returned to her studies at West Liberty College in West Virginia where she is a senior in dental hygiene. She stayed off at the college for a short visit with Karen before returning home.

The Franklin Mills of Greentree Road spent a week in September traveling through the Smoky Mountains. They made stops at historic Charleston, Gatlinburg and Knoxville during their tour.

RELATIVES OF THE Dwayne Millers of Macfield Drive have been arriving on the week end and beginning of the week for a "family reunion."

Mrs. C. J. Gray of Hastings,

Neb. mother of Mrs. Miller, has been visiting the family for the past three weeks. The other house guests include Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sadder of Denver, Colo., and Miss Vera Newburn and Dr. Mable G. Newburn of Greeley, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hollis of Winchcombe Drive announced the birth of a daughter, Debra, on Sept. 20. They have two other children, Donna, 5, and Diane, 3.

Chapel Hills Estates subdivision held its fall picnic on the pump house grounds on a recent Saturday afternoon. Residents tooted their own hot dogs and an array of hot and cold salads and desserts for the popular smorgas-board affair. The latter part of the afternoon was devoted to games and activities for the area children.

A GROUP OF Chapel Hills Estates members formed a bowling league for their second year. The league of six teams of mixed cou-

Using only their compass the scouts will hike, carrying their two-day pack on their backs, the five miles to the campsite at Holly Recreation Area where the activities will begin.

Republican Offices

Now on S. Woodward

The Birmingham Republican Headquarters has opened at 246 S. Woodward. Local businessmen have contributed services, equipment, and supplies, and volunteers telephone, distribute literature, bumper stickers, and pins, and sell campaign materials.

Don Johnston, 4 Hickory Hollow, Birmingham, is in charge of the headquarters. Mrs. James Walter is directing the volunteer help; Mrs. Joan Mueller, ten-agers who are canvassing and checking registrations, and Mrs. Don Johnston is the general office manager.

The Headquarters House, just south of the Birmingham Theater, is open from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. The headquarters has issued a call for volunteers from businessmen to housewives and retirees to teenagers.

MR. AND MRS. LOREN Nall of North Adams celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with their children last Saturday.

The children planned the day which began with an 11 a.m. mass at St. Thomas More Catholic Church. The scene then changed to Devon Gables where brunch was served. Centering the table was a money tree that was presented to the Nalls. In the afternoon the group returned to the Nall home for a party and a roast beef dinner at eight.

In the group celebrating the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. William Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lieb of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Latimer of Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nall of Walled Lake; Mrs. Loren Nall, Jr., and daughters, Janis and Terese, of Redford (Loren Nall, Jr., unable to attend is recuperating from pneumonia).

Other relatives were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Carey of Detroit; Thomas Latimer, Jr., Mrs. T. C. Cook and Mrs. Ted Lattice of Cleveland; and Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell of Chicago.

THE JAMES BROWNS of Meadowlane Court have just returned home after spending the month of September in Europe. Accompanying them on the trip was a friend, Mrs. James P. Laughlin of Detroit, a former resident of Bloomfield Village.

On their arrival in New York they were joined by Mrs. Robert Honeycutt of Pasadena, Calif., Mrs. Brown's mother. She was flown to New York by her son, Robert D. Honeycutt, a pilot with TWA.

From there the group of four flew to London where they spent eight days visiting relatives in suburban Forest Hills. Mrs. Honeycutt stayed in in her home town while the Browns traveled through Copenhagen, Amsterdam and Cologne, Germany where a boat trip was taken down the picturesque Rhine River to view the historic castles.

Among the other cities on their itinerary were Vienna, Austria; Venice; Rome; Naples; Florence; Paris and then on for a few days in Lucerne, Switzerland.

Mrs. Honeycutt will return to the U. S. sometime in October and plans on a visit with the Browns before returning to California.

THE FAR HILL Drive home of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Koehler was a busy place for last-minute details and goodbyes last week.

The Koehlers left for a flight to Milwaukee, Wis., to attend a three-day convention of the Central Association of Obstetrics and Gynecology.
