

Hills' Color Tours Scheduled for Fall

Bloomfield Hills is one of the southern Michigan areas where color tours are popular, according to Jerry E. Fisher, Automobile Club of Michigan touring manager. The Auto Club predicts about one-half million motorists will have taken Michigan color tours between September and early October.

DOWN TO EARTH

By ALICE WESSELS BURLINGAME
Special Writer

Choose Chrysanthemums Now for Beauty in Spring

This is the season to select the recent, but next spring when you dress as on Maple but their chrysanthemums you like for your think about a permanent location buildings at the rear face on Ham garden. They to plant and for the...

Kingsley

(Continued from 1-D)

Fredericks said he has dubbed the group "Saints and Sinners."

THE ARTIST described his creations as "highly stylized figures that were done in a humorous vein." Four of the figures represent women, and the remaining trio are men.

Woodward when the latter was a mud road known to the settlers as the Saginaw Trail.

IT WAS MOVED further west on Long Lake following World War I, during which it had served as a children's hospital. It is now the home of Mrs. Susan Mimer.

