BEHIND the STORE FRONTS

Tents and sleeping bags were used. The pilot left them on their own for the three weeks (without guides).

THE PARTY took six caribou which they consumed: caribou for breakfast, lunch, and for a change, caribou for dinner—supplemented, though, with dried foods, which Erwin said worked out very well.

When they first arrived in mid-August there was continuous day light. Light enough, in fact, to see the crosswires on telescopic sights after midnight if the hunters wanted to hunt that late.

Friday and Saturday at their brand new planning center. It is probably one of the most complete and elaborate kitchen centers in the United States.
