MRS. J. P. BRENNAN

Three Sisters Attend Bride At Wedding

Brooke Susanne Ruen and James Patrick Brennan were joined in marriage Saturday at 12 noon before invited guests at Holy Name Church, Birmingham. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Ruen of Cranbrook Road, wore an empire styled gown of silk alpaca which featured a Watteau train embroidered in pearls and Alencon lace. The bridal bouquet was composed of phalaenopsis orchids.

The bride's three sisters, Heidi Anne as the maid of honor and Robin and Shelly as the bridesmaids, preceded her down the aisle. They were attired in Alice blue peau de soie floor length gowns touched with moss green velvet and carried purple stalice nosegay bouquets.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brennan of Evergreen Park, Ill., was attended by Eugene Migely Jr. as best man. Ushers were his brother, Richard Jr., and Quinn Denver and Phillip Doran.

Following the service a reception was held at Orchard Lake Country Club. The couple will reside in Cleveland after a northern Michigan honeymoon.

Newlyweds Receive Blessing from Pope

A papal blessing was bestowed on Mr. and Mrs. John R. Redmond following their marriage rites Saturday noon at St. Columban Church.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. J. Leo Healy, a cousin of the bride, while Stephen R. Kivansky, brother of the bride and student at Sacred Heart Seminary, served at the mass.

The bride, the former Barbara E. Kivansky, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kivansky, 1407 S. Eton, Birmingham. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John Redmond of Royal Oak.

Newlyweds Reside At Fort Benning

James N. Pykals, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard V. Pykals of Birmingham and Laird Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bennett of Petersburg, Ill., were married Sept. 5 in Petersburg. Douglas Neu of Lathrup Village was the best man and ushers were Leonard W. Pykals of Garden City, the bridegroom's brother, Bobby G. Boring and Norman Riedesel. The bride was attended by Connie L. Terhune and Christine Bennett.

A reception was held at the bride's home. The newlyweds are making their home at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Betrothed

A Nov. 27 wedding is being planned by Sandra Mary Schlenkert and James Antone Kinjorski, following the announcement of their engagement. Parents of the engaged couple are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Schlenkert, 6371 Pontiac Trail, W. Bloomfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kinjorski of Detroit.

Weavers to Meet

The Michigan Weavers' Guild will meet today at 1:15 p.m. at the Romeo studio of Eileen Avall who will speak on "Current Projects with Emphasis on Color."

MRS. J. R. REDMOND

The NEW Mrs. Redmond wore a floor-length gown of white de-luxure satin. The bodice and oval neckline were encrusted with seed pearls and crystal, while the bell-shaped skirt featured the same design in pearls and crystal. A chapel train fell from beneath a Dior bow at the back waistline. Her bubble veil was secured by a spray of orange blossoms accented with crystals.

Honor attendant Joan Hartley, a cousin of the bride, wore a pink taffeta floor-length gown and carried a spray of pink and white carnations. Wearing identical gowns of red taffeta were the bridesmaids, Betty Merchberger of Troy and Linda Redmond of Royal Oak.

The FLOWER GIRL, and ring bearer were Laura and Michael Kivansky, sister and brother of the bride. Gary Redmond, a brother of the bridegroom, assisted as best man. Paul Merchberger Jr. and Michael Dunnehan seated the guests.

Following a dinner and reception at the Oddfellows Hall in Ferndale, the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. The bride wore a cranberry red wool suit with black accessories.

The Redmonds will make their home in Clawson.
