

Double Ring Rites Unite Area Couple

A double ring post-noon ceremony Saturday in St. Hugo of the Hills Church united Anne Louise Noonan, of Bloomfield Hills, James Henry Traynor, of Birmingham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Noonan, 86 Lone Pine Road. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Traynor of 844 Pierce Street.

The maid of honor was Meredith Dreyer, of New York, while the best man was Ronald Jackson, of Birmingham.

MRS. J. H. TRAYNOR

ATTENDING THE BRIDE will be Karen McNulty, Northfield, Ill.; Phyllis Nucenzo, of Royal Oak, and Shanna Staples, Martha Kinnison and Cheryl Norton, all of Birmingham. Rose Austin, Clinton, N. C., and Sheila Klein, Edina, Minn.

Flower girl will be Christen Klein, and ring bearer will be Mark Klein, the children of the attending Richard Klein.

The bride will wear a Bianchi coat and dress ensemble, the dress being a floor-length ball gown of candelight silk peau de soie styled with a princess skirt defined with a beaded band at the empire line midriff.

The full length coat of French net and hand corded Alencon lace embroidered with pearls, which buttons in back, features a portrait waistline, long sleeves, and an empire line bodice extending into a graceful chapel length train. A beaded crown of matching lace will hold the full length veil of silk illusion. Her flowers will be white roses and white stephanotis.

USHERS INCLUDE John Davis and Richard Callahan, Royal Oak; Dennis Groves, Birmingham; Peter Mosher, Livonia, and Carl Vogel, Detroit; David Russ, Harrison, Pa.; Carl Aley, Fayetteville, N. C., and Richard Klein, Edina, Minn.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids will wear floor-length gowns of wheat colored peau de suede. Peaked crowns of matching fabric with short circle veils will complete their costumes. Their flowers will be gold and

Newly-Wed

The Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Birmingham was the scene of the wedding uniting Karen Lee Kupiec and Edward John Anderson at 6:30 p.m. Saturday. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kupiec of Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anderson of Crystal Lake, Ill.

The bride wore a Bianchi gown of candelight silk peau de soie embroidered with a flower motif of crystals and pearls. A chapel length panel mantilla of imported peau d'ange lace was worn as the headpiece. A dinner reception was held at Red Run Golf Club. Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, the newlyweds will make their home in Crystal Lake.

Miss Shukait Is Bride Of Patrick J. Callahan

A reception at the Kingsley Inn followed the solemn nuptial mass uniting Sandra Emily Shukait to Patrick Joseph Callahan at 11 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church, Beverly Hills. A papal blessing was read after the ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John S. Shukait, 17217 Kirkshire, Beverly Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Callahan of Detroit.

The bride appeared in a Bianchi coat of ivory peau de soie fashioned with a softly-controlled skirt and chapel train. The princess-style bodice was accented by Alencon lace and pearl clusters, which also formed the traditional long bridal sleeves with points.

A PILLBOX of Alencon lace covered by a French rose secured her bouffant veil of imported French silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and ivy.

Wearing identical floor-length gowns of green chiffon and carrying bouquets of green Fuji mums and ivy were Barbara Jean Langley, maid of honor; Cecile A. McCaffrey of Grosse Pointe Shores and Mrs. Bruce O. Wilson of Birmingham, bridesmaids.

Assisting his brother was the best man, James F. Callahan Jr. Serving as ushers were Robert W. Young of Ferndale and Stanley T. Denek of Cleveland, O.

MRS. P. J. CALLAHAN

The newlyweds planned a wedding trip to northern Canada and the New England states following the reception. The bride wore a rose and lavender tweed suit for her traveling costume.

Northern Trip Follows Rites At St. Juliana

Kathleen Franck and Jack Edward Strettar were wed at noon services on Saturday, Oct. 3 at St. Juliana's Church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Franck, 13413 Wilshire, Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Strettar, 36926 Rosemont Drive, Franklin.

THE BRIDES gown was a chantly lace sheath with a silk organza overskirt appliqued with lace. A small cabbage rose of silk organza accented her illusion veil, and she carried orchids and stephanotis.

Marilyn Labute of Mt. Clemens wore a long blue silk gown enhanced with velvet jacket for her duties as maid of honor. She carried yellow Fuji mums. Wearing identical gowns was the brides-
