Bazaar Planned By Phi Mu

In what members hope to be the first annual Christmas Bazaar to benefit Project HOPE, Phi Mu alumnae will welcome patrons to the Hospitality House, 17000 Kercheval, Grosse Pointe, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 20, from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

Phi Mu is the second oldest Panhellenic sorority and is now in its 118th year. This marks the first year of the official adoption of Project HOPE as Phi Mu's social service project by collegiate and alumnae chapters all over the nation.

THE BAZAAR will feature hand-made items by members. In addition to the reasonably priced gifts, coffee and cookies will be served.

Birmingham members who have been working for the Bazaar are Mrs. Garland Tait, Mrs. Harry Davidson, Mrs. J. E. Fouser, Mrs. E. E. Faulkner, Mrs. Dana Norton, Mrs. Vernon C. Bryant, Mrs. Dallas Sprinkle, Mrs. Earl Triplett, Mrs. John Thornhill, Mrs. James Saylor, Mrs. Barry Parsons, Mrs. Kenneth McCullough.

OES Installation Set at New Temple

The first installation of new officers of Birmingham Chapter No. 220 Order of the Eastern Star to take place in the new Masonic Temple on S. Woodward, Bloomfield Hills, will take place Wednesday at 7:45 p.m.

Mrs. Clifford Ross and Alex Busby will be installed as worthy matron and worthy patron. Tuesday, Wednesday and today Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stutz and Mrs. Ross are in Grand Rapids as delegates to the Grand Chapter of Michigan.

Kappas Mark Anniversary

Area members of the North Woodward Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma will hold a potluck supper at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frederick Eilber, 445 Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Hills.

Hostesses will be Mrs. William Decker, Mrs. Miller Hanson, Mrs. Robert Close, Mrs. Ronald Nelson, all of Birmingham, Mrs. Raymond Bender, Royal Oak, and Mrs. Howard Herbst, Orchard Lake.

October marks the 94th anniversary of the founding of the fraternity, and Kappas all over the United States meet this month to pay tribute to the six girls who founded the sorority in 1870, at Monmouth College.

Province director of chapters for Kappa Kappa Gamma, Mrs. Cornelius Brogan, Ann Arbor, will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Brogan will speak on problems facing fraternities and sororities on campuses today, impressions that the fraternities make on their campus and community and the need to make sure that friends and the public in general understand and approve its motives and conduct.

Seton Guild Marks Silver Anniversary

Silver bright are Seton Guild's twenty-five years of service for the welfare of small children. Like an oak from the lowly acorn, today's Guild was organized by a small group of women of the Shrine of the Little Flower, Royal Oak.

The Silver Jubilee will be observed at a banquet to be held Saturday, Oct. 24, at 7 p.m. in Labourer Lounge of St. Vincent-Sarah Fisher Home for Children, Twelve Mile and Inkster Roads.

The celebration is under the chairmanship of past president Mrs. Jerry T. Flanigan. Among those assisting with arrangements are three other past presidents from Birmingham: Mesdames Lawrence Heintz, John Malpeli, Jr., and Faye Baldwin.

Gay birthday parties each month for children of various ages were an inspiration of the Guild. Gifts of canned fruit and vegetables, sewing and mending, and financial aid were welcome.

St. Vincent's Orphanage, an old landmark in Detroit dating back to 1851, closed it's doors in 1948. These children happily joined the little ones at Sarah Fisher and the names joined, too. It became St. Vincent-Sarah Fisher Home for Children. There are ten modern cottages, administrative buildings, chapel and a school. This is a home for 180 children. The hands of the Sisters reach out to the infant awaiting adoption and to children of all ages in need of care.

EACH YEAR presented more projects and greater needs and Seton Guild became a metropolitan group. In 1951 the membership increased from 100 to 400. Some of the Guild's major accomplishments have been:

Built and furnished Nursery Sanitorium.

Log cabins built for each cottage to provide storage for out of season play equipment.

Large dock at Brighton Summer Camp.

Redecorated and replaced flooring in Nursery Adoption Room.

Two large school buses; four station wagons and one truck.

Completely furnished the new Mother Seton Nursery School.

Asphalt play areas, permanent sand boxes, official baseball diamond.

Dining room furniture for 10 cottages.

Examination table, bottle washer and formula dispenser.

Piano for Kindergarten.

Bathing and dressing facilities and large circulating fans for all nursery rooms.

Jet air transportation for the 7th and 8th grade children for Mother Seton Week at the 1964 World's Fair—a never to be forgotten treat.

ALWAYS A HIGHLIGHT of Guild activities is the annual Christmas tea for the children, complete with Santa Claus and gifts of their choice.

Today, as members look back over twenty-five years, they look forward to new challenges. Make reservations for the Silver Jubilee Banquet with Mrs. Leo Weber by Oct. 17 or contact chairman Mrs. Jerry T. Flanigan.

Jr., of Rochester left to drive to Chapeau, Ont., for 10 days in the wilderness.

From Chapeau they were flown into the real hunting and fishing country. While Bill fished, Charles and his son tried their hand at hunting moose.

FORMER Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil King have moved back to this area after living in Argentina, South America, and Wisconsin. Their address is now 2801 W. Maple.

A son, Cecil B., is now a student at Albion while a daughter, Lynn, is still at home. Mr. King is with the Ford Motor Co. in the forge and foundry division.

He is a holder of several college degrees, a BA from Howard College in Alabama; a master's from Northwestern University and also a degree in engineering from Chrysler. At the present time he is also teaching evenings at Lawrence Institute.

Mrs. King also holds a BA from Howard, where she was a member of the Delta Zeta sorority. Mr. King enjoys singing and is a soloist at the Birmingham Baptist Church. Mrs. King enjoys music but prefers art.

The Cranbrook-Maple Association will hold its annual meeting at the Westchester School at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Residents are urged to attend since the election of officers will take place as well as discussions on matters important to the area.

MR. AND MRS. Peter James will be leaving their Roanoke Drive home soon and establishing residence in Atlanta, Ga.

Friends of Mrs. James gathered for a farewell luncheon at Fox and Hounds on Oct. 8. Attending were Mrs. Richard Knudsen, Mrs. Charles Richards and Mrs. John McKinnie. The foursome also celebrated Mrs. McKinnie's birthday.

On Sept. 29, 16 women gathered at the home of Mrs. H. P. Carr of Foxchase for a 10 a.m. "coffee" and to greet a new neighbor, Mrs. Dwight Weber. The coffee was cohosted by Mrs. Arthur Cabral. Mrs. Carr also had visiting her at this time her sister, Mrs. Marie Hayes from Toledo, O., who spent a week with her.

THE J. T. CRUICE family of E. Breckenridge "did" the east when they vacationed recently. Son Terry and daughter Kelly enjoyed the New York World's Fair, St. Patrick's Cathedral, the Empire State Building, United Nations and a host of other notable places.

The family also visited with Mr. Cruice's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Oskin in Greenwich, Conn.

Mrs. John F. Enders of Buffalo, N. Y., drove here to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Courtney of Middlebury Lane and their family, arriving on Oct. 7 for a week's stay.

Enroute Mrs. Enders stopped in Lakewood, O., to say "hello" to Courtney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Courtney.

ONE OF THE main projects of the year for the St. Regis Altar Society will take place when they hold their auction on Oct. 20 at the Knights of Columbus Hall at Southfield and 13 Mile Road.

Refreshments will be available for those who might wish to spend a number of hours bidding for the many valuable items which will be offered.

MRS. JAMES M. Littig of Cincinnati, O., was home visiting with Dad and Mom (Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glueckstad of Farmingdale Drive) for a week with young Michael who is now 15 months and a bundle of constant movement.

Mr. Littig drove his wife and son here on Oct. 2 and picked them up on Oct. 11 which gave mother and daughter quite a few days for shopping and lunches together.

One day was spent at Town Hall for the lecture series, and another at the Coach and Four. Dad came into the picture when he took his two ladies to the Birmingham Country Club for dinner.

I cannot afford to waste my time making money.

MOTHER-IN-LAW COMING?

Draperies look a little like she's gonna think you don't clean very well and that's not the way her boy was raised anyhow . . . ?

No matter how her boy was raised you can't beat Birmingham Cleaners for restoring those draperies to their original brightness.

Husband & M-I-L will both be impressed with how neatly you handled getting the house cleaned.

On the other hand . . . maybe she won't like your cooking . . . make a note to ask the bridge club for menu ideas . . . you know—scrumptious but frugal. They'll be impressed with your look-like-new draperies too. Tell them about the guaranteed correct length and you could even hint that maybe theirs need cleaning . . . we'd appreciate it.
