Plans Scholarship Luncheon

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Members and guests of the Brookside branch, Women's National Farm and Garden Association, are in for a full and enjoyable afternoon when they attend the annual scholarship bridge luncheon on Oct. 22.

An added attraction will be a fashion show of hats from the Ladies Shop of Birmingham. The affair will be held at Edgewood Country Club.

Chairman of this year's benefit are Mrs. E. G. Winn and Mrs. E. Nielsen assisted by Mrs. Charles Galoway.

Mrs. June Taylor MacGregor will be the commentator for the hat show. Mrs. Asa Drury, Mrs. Mitchell, Callie, Mrs. P. D. Clawson, Mrs. Clifford Hick, Mrs. Galoway, Mrs. P. L. Harris, Mrs. A. Magnus, Mrs. Nielsen and Mrs. Sherwood Nye will be the members modeling the hats from Ladies.

BONNIE JEAN Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Weeks of Carriage Road, will become the bride of Charles Frederick Still on Nov. 28. Bonnie Jean has been honored and will be honored at several forthcoming parties.

Mrs. Robert Dussan of Carriage Road gave a luncheon and kitchen shower in her home recently. Attending were about 30 friends and neighbors.

THIS EVENING Bonnie Jean's fellow employees in the Briggs Building will shower her with "socks." The coffee and dessert affair will be held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Braun at 769 Sebago, Bloomfield Hills. Winnie Braun will assist her mother as co-hostess.

An afternoon tea and linen shower, given by Susan MacLean, Bonnie Jean's maid of honor, will be held Oct. 31 at the MacLean home in Birmingham. High school and college friends will attend.

PATRICIA and Barbara Kemp, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kemp of Echo Road, Delis of Bloomfield, left Monday by KLM for New York and Europe for a three week vacation.

Their itinerary includes Amsterdam, Berlin, Frankfurt, Munich, Zurich, Venice, Paris, London and Rome.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Christopher Kent of Worthington Road, Wing Lake, returned recently from an 11 day trip. Leaving their son, David, with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kent at their home also on Worthington, the younger Kents motored to Quebec where they were guests at the Chateau Frontenac. They drove down the coast to Maine and Boston, through New York state and home.

ANOTHER WING Lake resident, Mrs. Mary R. Peters of Thurber Road, entertained friends and neighbors for cocktails and dinner recently.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. James Dugan and the Harry Fairchilds of Thurber Road, the Walter Steekers of Wing Lake Road, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nampa of Bloomfield Village and Tom Wagner of Pontiac.

Tuesday evening the Glencoe Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Wood at 5821 Blanford Court. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. Guestesses will be Mrs. Fred Peterson and Mrs. Ronald Horwath.

"Do It Yourself Christmas Ideas" will be the topic presented by Mrs. H. W. Schoenlein, guest speaker.

A MYSTERY TRIP was arranged by Mrs. Kenneth Moore, program chairman of the Wing Lake Shores branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Club, for the Oct. 5 meeting.

The members boarded a chartered bus to the Ford estate, Fairlane. After a tour of the grounds and house, the members partook of a box luncheon before returning home.

It takes a bit of thought to pack for an overnight camp-out when you must carry everything on your back for a five mile hike. This was the challenge that faced members of Boy Scout Troop #1022 last week.

THE TROOP met at Conant School Saturday morning to begin what they called a "pack back bivouac." The group, under the direction of scoutmaster Robert Smith and assistant scoutmaster Howard Geldhof, drove to the Holly Recreation area where they began their trek. Here, the troop joined several other Boy Scout troops and competed for the Silver Axe Award.

It was a weary troop that returned Sunday afternoon, but, a smiling one. They had won the Silver Axe Award.

Parents of Conant School children, tie a string around your fingers to help you remember your plates and silverware because the annual Conant Family Fun Fest began this week. Gourmet food and games are the bill of fare again this year.

Dessert will be served by Mrs. W. H. Cravens, Mrs. James Skillman, and Mrs. Frederick Miller. Some of the members attending from the Birmingham area will be Mrs. J. R. Anderson, Mrs. Saul Bernat, Mrs. Archie Brown, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. James Lamb, Mrs. Carl Lischer and Mrs. Walter Ruffer.

trows in the news?
how very VSS!

FASHION FUTURE
THE TROUSER SUIT

This is it! The look that Paris loved (and bought at astronomical prices) during the couture showings. London went all-out for it in a matter of weeks. And you'll find it at VSS—the very important Trousers Suit.

To be worn as couturier Courreges decreed: for luncheon at the smartest places, to town for the day whatever the weather.

We asked one of our favorite tailors to do a Trousers Suit with North Woodward overtones. With a madly fashionable camel fleece coat and long-stemmed trousers in supple flannel.

The sum total is pure bravo! Definitely not for everybody. Evolved—like the VSS fashion philosophy—for the elegant individualist who sets the pace.

You'll never find racks and stacks of carbon copies at VSS. We buy as you do, few-of-a-kind finds that are the ultimate authority. The Trousers Suit, size 10, 98.95 With it, the success of the season, our pet VSS Suitmaker in most colors. 12.95
