don't be misled by fur prices!

Following an ill informed mountain guide could lead to disaster. Today many persons are misled by fur prices. There is a difference in furs before you next go shopping for furs—consult with the fur experts at Wrubel & Kozin and let them guide you to the right decision. After serving Detroit's most discriminating families for over forty years, you, too, can trust their judgment. At Wrubel & Kozin you'll find the finest furs of unquestionable value at modest prices.

Here's just one of many fine Wrubel & Kozin furs. Natural Black Imperial Mink Coat of world's finest selected pelts.

NORTH ADAMS

Autumn in Northern Michigan Calls Residents Out-of-Town

By ELIZABETH YATES

The call and color of the north country has enticed many North Adams residents during these October week ends. Three groups from the Eastover Estates area departed on Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings for Walloon Lake. Two summer homes were their headquarters while they enjoyed autumn in all its splendor.

In the group were the Donald Hydes and the William DeVaults of S. Reading Road, the Hal Zimmernans, the James Maya, the Earl McConells, the Robert Fosters, the Douglas Pamplins and the Willard Sherrards of N. Reading Road and the Charles Tallings of Birmingham.

"THE DIGGERS" garden club members invited their husbands to join them on a four day trip through northern Michigan.

The group left on Thursday and will be guests of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Moore of Rochester at the Moore summer home at Crystal Downs, Frankfort. During their stay "The Diggers" plan to hunt for unusual rocks, seed pods and brags.

In the group from the North Adams area were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Linder of Westchester Road and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fouser of North Adams Road.

THE ROLAND Stares of Oak Hill Drive and friends attended the University of Michigan—Navy game at Ann Arbor. After the game they returned to the Starr home for cocktails and dinner.

Included were the Frank Starrs of Birmingham, the Thomas Fosters of Farmington, the William Keyvons of Huntington Woods and the Ray Strams of Royal Oak.

VISITING the Roland Starr family for four days recently were relatives of Mrs. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koenning of Pasadena, Calif. After their visit the Koennings traveled through northern Michigan to view the autumn colors before their return home.

The Richard Wickhams of Oak Hill Drive are looking forward to an autumn weekend when they will rendezvous in Chicago with members of their family for a reunion.

Joining them there will be Mrs. Arthur Johnson, mother of Mrs. Wickham, and Mr. and Mrs. Herabell Parker, who are teachers at the University of Illinois. Greg Akins, son of the Welling Akins of Upton Road is at Michigan State University for his freshman studies.

MRS. OTTILIE Bigelow of North Adams Road entertained at a birthday luncheon at Pine Lake Country Club honoring Bernice Pataack of Detroit on Friday afternoon. Other guests were Mrs. A. C. Mahonke and Mrs. A. Adrich of Rochester, Mrs. John Hanna of Birmingham and Mrs. Ron Anderson of Southfield.

Another dinner party at the Women's City Club, invited to join them were Frances Anderson, Don Olson, Francis C. King of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Anderson of Southfield.

Another dinner party at the DAC last week was a party celebrating Mrs. Bigelow's birthday. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Anderson and Alderson Carley of Southfield, Mrs. John Hanna of Birmingham and R. J. Kirehner who flew in from Atlantic City for the occasion.

BIRMINGHAM—Bloomfield families are forever homing during their travels. Four Thornwood subdivision families learned just before departing on their vacations that they were all going to the World's Fair during the same week. It was decided all would meet on a specified day, time, and exhibit—all arrived and were accounted for.

Flying to New York were Lee Butler and daughter, Edie, who were joined by Richard Wickham and daughter, Diney, all of Oak Hill Drive. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lewis of Hoshawk, Texas, and daughters, Charlotte, Joyce and Karen, motored as did the Roland Starrs and children, Rolly, Tom and Mary Ann, of Oak Hill Drive and some relatives.

MRS. FRANCIS Shaw of Meadowdale Drive, a member of the United Church Women of Birmingham, was chosen to join 25 other Michigan women for four days at the United Nations Religious Center in New York.

The group will depart on a char-

Election Theme Set For Fashion Show

Residents of Charnwood Hills and Lake Charnwood, Birmingham and Chapel Hills, Bloomfield, are mixing politics with fashion this month. They are preparing for "Vote-Getter Fashions" to be presented by the Altar Society of Sacred Heart Church at 8 p.m. on Oct. 28, in the church's school hall.

Mrs. Lee Hinch, president of the Altar Society has announced that Mrs. Randall Melvoney and Mrs. Michael Gianotti are handling tickets for Charnwood residents; Mrs. William Kones, Lake Charnwood; and Mrs. Kamco, Chapel Hills.

Modeling winning ticket styles from the RB Shop, Birmingham, will be Charnwood residents Janet and Judy Kreucher, Marguerite Rouleau and Gerry Radke from Lake Charnwood; and Helen Blake and Lorraine Scholter from Chapel Hills.

CHARNWOOD Hills subdivision held its annual fall dinner at the Troy Elks Club on Saturday evening. A harvest theme was carried out in the decorations and table centerpieces of hickory-walnut and pumpkins skillfully done by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris of Morris Nursery.

A jamboree of folk singing, hootenanny program and bowling followed the dinner.

On the social committee with the Morrises were the Charles so you can sleep in stretch-out super size Beautyrest comfort like this!

FREE with each Beautyrest Super Size Set
Your choice of Simmons Bed-Stretcher Rails of steel bed frame with casters. Value to $30.00!

Beautyrest Supports each Sleeps Separately—in Single Bed Comfort

Look at the hammock-type of sleep you get from an ordinary mattress with its tied-together coils. Push down on one and they all go down.

Here's why even the heaviest husband can't sink a little extra bed on a Beautyrest. Independently acted coils provide separate, non-sag support.
