B'ham Man Visits Australia

When America's mightiest warship, the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier USS Enterprise visited Sydney recently the crew was given a rousing welcome by the Australians. More than 60,000 people crammed vantage points while hundreds of thousands more watched from their shore-bordering homes.

Local Man Gives Woodside Lecture

Jack E. LaBelle, 217 Woodwood, Birmingham, was selected to give the annual Woodside lecture before the Detroit chapter of the American Society for Metals.

The lecture was given Monday in honor of one of the founder members of the society, W. P. Woodside. LaBelle spoke on "Some Practical for Metals."

Qualifies to Land On Naval Carrier

Navy Ensign Robert A. Borlet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Borlet of 8222 Labree Road, Birmingham, has qualified for carrier landings aboard the aircraft carrier USS Lexington, operating in the Gulf of Mexico. In order to qualify he had to make takeoffs and landings from the deck of the carrier.

Prior to making the landings at sea, the student aviator must qualify on field carrier landing strips at Colonial Airlines, and was the district sales manager in charge of carrier's flight deck. This helps the student adjust himself to the restricted landing area on the deck of the carrier.
