Marian Model United Nations To Hear Malcolm Dooley

By CYNTHIA DIEHL
 Special Writer

Malcolm Dooley, brother of the famed Dr. Tom Dooley, founder of MEDICO and medical doctor in Southeast Asia, has accepted Marian's invitation to be the guest speaker at the third annual Model United Nations.

President Colleen Taylor and Secretary-General Doris Flaherty announced the tentative schedule for the session.

The three questions, Police Force, Yemen and Security Council, will be discussed at the General Assembly, which are open to the public. Committee meetings will be held before each Assembly.

REGISTRATION will take place at 8:45 a.m. Friday, November 27. The Proceedings will culminate in the white paper and presentation of awards at approximately 3:30 p.m. on Saturday.

The year book staff announced plans for their drive which started Friday, Oct. 9. The quota for each girl is $6 which consists of one $1 student booster and a $5 patron.

Business patrons of $10 and quarter, half and full page ads will also be sold.

Each class has been given a color in which their record will be kept. Thus, the theme—Show Your Colors! The class with the highest returns will be rewarded with a free afternoon during which a class party will be held.

THE FOLK highest individual awards are a guitar, a Villager Sweater, a transistor radio and a sterling silver charm bracelet.

The next four highest will receive a free yearbook.

The yearbook staff includes Doris Flaherty, editor; Anne Nemitz, Judy Grier, Anne Marie Stuebeli, Pat Cleary, Ricky Hoffman, Margaret Whalen, Mary Knapp, Barb Arim, Linda Gibson and Kathy Sheils.

The business manager is Sister Mary Sebastian.

Marian's first handbook was passed out last week.

It is divided into four parts: personal responsibility, which covers intellectual, spiritual and social growth; Marian community, which covers the organization of the school; guidelines, which cover the actual rules of the school; and the appendix which includes the school songs and the calendar for the year.

Area Schools Receive Awards For Yearbooks

Four local schools were among winners in the 20th Annual Yearbook Critique sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association recently.

Derby Junior High won a first place for printed yearbooks of junior high schools with its publication, "Emeritus."

Seaton's "Piper" received a medalist rating for senior high schools of 1,601-2,500 students.

"QUEST" of Brother Rice High was awarded a medalist rating for an offset yearbook in a boys' private school.

Bloomfield Country Day took a second place for offset yearbooks in a girls' private school with their publication, "Pr-lude."

Oakland Association Secretaries Meet At Seaton High

Oakland Association of Educational Secretaries attended an all-day workshop at Seaton High School on Friday, Oct. 15.

Dr. Edgar Johnston, coordinator of research for the Watford Township Schools, spoke in the morning. His topic was "The Indispensable Cog."

Two other speakers were featured during the day. Walter Shemie, director of International Village in Detroit, who gave the after-lunch-out address, and Dr. Thekla James, head of the English department at Wayne State University. Her topic was "Education, 1964."

Seniors Capture 1st In Maple Field Day

By KATHY PORTER

"Strength through Wisdom" prevailed as Mike Koeneke and Viki Hogan, representing the entire Senior Class at Seaton, proudly received the traditional flag of victory from the hands of Principal Wagner on Oct. 14.

This marked the end of five weeks of continuous preparation. The Juniors followed with a total of 75 and the Sophomores finished third with a score of 90.

AT 12:30 P.M. exactly on Wednesday the entire student body was lined up in their matching positions according to classes.

When the going started the Seniors, who were leading the other two classes, proceeded to silently but uniformly march into the gym. The banners of each class illustrating their theme preceded the solemn but anticipating faces.

The real tension spread throughout the gym when the announcer officially began Field Day and said "The Sophomore Class will now cheer."

In unison the Sophomore Class stood, dressed as Romans, and began to chant the lines which explained to the other two classes that this class was "one out of many" (E Pluribus Unum) and that with determination they were going to try for a Field Day victory in '64.

THE JUNIORS, dressed as sailors, then began their cheers. "Look to New Horizons" constituted their theme as they ended their song with the words "Victory awaits at the shore."

When the seniors finished, the gym once more fell completely silent and the Seniors stood to give their cheers. Costumed as Orientals they used the theme "Strength through Wisdom."

It being to lead the cheers was a colorful fur adorned dragon straight from Chinatown. The dragon served as a symbol of strength, who was evoking the power of wisdom through the pool.

The dragon found the pool and the Seniors found victory in Field Day.

FOLLOWING THE cheers, the events were the flag shuttle relay, boys' and girls' tug-of-war, sack race, barrel race, 3-legged race and egg throw.

After three hours of complete chaos and then uproarious cheering during the events, it was all over until the fall of 1965.

Do we really need a Medicare Tax?

Health care is now available for "over 65's" who cannot afford to pay

If you are over 65, facing medical expense and can't pay for it... it's yours for the asking, already provided for by law. The Kerr-Mills Act offers a Health Opportunity Program for the Elderly with the federal and state governments sharing the cost.

In most states this care is far, far greater than that offered by Medicare proposals... and no additional tax is necessary!

If you are elderly, and without funds for needed medical care, ask your doctor about the Health Opportunity Program for the Elderly, or call your local medical society.
