Baron Sophomores Name Class Officers

By KAREN TRIMMER
 Special Writer

Now that class officers for the class of 1967 have been elected at Bloomfield Hills High School, the sophomore class will begin planning for this coming year.

The newly elected officers were John Mersey, president; Betsy Wolfe, vice president; Marsha Hetherington, secretary; and Ken Black, treasurer.

Plans are now being made for this year's Homecoming float and future plans for activities are being discussed.

THE CLUB has already made one field trip this year, going to Detroit to see "Quo Vadis" and hold a sack supper at the home of Mary Risdon. Future plans include the annual Thanksgiving dinner and the Roman Banquet.

"The Mouse that Roared" has been selected as the first play to be presented by the Dramatics Club. There will be no class plays presented this year; instead it will be mandatory to be a member of the club in order to have a part in the play.

Officers of the club include Duane DeNador, president; Connie DiMatteo, vice president; Janet Eiss, secretary; Rosemarie Richie, treasurer; and Pat Horton, business manager.

ALSO BUSY with plans for the year is the junior class, with plans for activities ranging from Prom, Homecoming, a trip to a college football game and to a fan night solely for juniors.

Carol Moses, float chairman, has matters progressing, while Cheryl Smith has already assigned committees for the planning of the fun night. General Prom chairman, Lynn Skinner, also has appointed individual committees to begin planning for this event.

An open house held on Oct. 18 and 19 helped introduce the new Bloomfield Public Library to the community. Chief Librarian Miss Rose Vainstein and director of children's books, Miss Rebecca Lamb, indicated at that time that more than 15,000 books are now ready for public use.

Tentative library hours have been scheduled for 12 noon-5 p.m. Monday through Wednesday; 11 a.m.-6 p.m. Thursday and Friday; and 9 a.m. through 5 p.m. every Saturday.

Latin Club officers were also recently selected for this year. Jeff Buchanan was elected president, with other officers Jeff Nebel, vice

Fill Council Positions at East Hills

By LINDA HONG
 Special Writer

On Monday, Oct. 12, Student Council elections were held at East Hills. After the speeches given by the candidates on Oct. 9, the following were elected: President, Peter Young; vice president, Linda Hong; secretary, Mary Leversuch; treasurer, Mary Mackellar.

Varsity cheerleading tryouts were held on Oct. 9 to fill the vacancy left by the moving of Joan Vance. Cheryl Beltske was chosen in a very close and contested race.

THE CRARY-East Hills football game ended with Crary as the victor. The game on Oct. 7, East Hills' first of the season, finished with a score of 12-6.

Brad Veselick wound up with a slight concussion and Peter Young with a leg injury. Both boys are members of the East Hills team.

On Oct. 21, the Cavaliers will play Smart Junior High School at 7 a.m. The night game will be held at Smart.

Mr. Ecola's civics classes held two debates on Oct. 12. The 4th hour class discussed the topic of lowering the voting age, while the 5th hour class argued about the pros and cons of a slight to the moon.

Torch Drive Head Seeks Volunteers

Mrs. Robert N. Green, regional chairman for the Birmingham Bloomfield area, United Foundation, reports there is still a need for volunteer solicitors in a few areas for this year's Torch Drive.

People wishing to volunteer may call the Oakland County UF office, Mrs. Robert Saffell, 572 Madison, Birmingham; Mrs. John Mitchell, 5420 Long Meadow, Bloomfield Hills; or Mrs. William Mikulas, 6742 Woodbank Dr., Wing Lake.

County Girl Scouts Name Publicity Man

Mrs. Webster Owen of Lathrup Village, president of the Southern Oakland Girl Scout Council, announced this week the appointment of Rod L. Wilson of Detroit to be position of public relations and finance director for the council.

Wilson attended law school with undergraduate work in business administration and a post-graduate study in marketing and economics at Wayne State University.

In an initial statement on entering his new post, Wilson said he is looking for men and women volunteers to serve in public relations work in the fields of newspapers, exhibits, radio, TV, program coordination and art work. Interested volunteers may call the Girl Scout office and arrange for an appointment.
