

Brainwave for busy women—

Hathaway's new drip-dry shirts of Kodel & cotton

HATHAWAY's blend of Hathaweave (Kodel* polyester fiber and cotton) washes in five minutes. Looks just laundered all day long. And scarcely ever needs an iron. A blessing for busy women.

You get the same finicky tailoring that goes into Hathaway shirts for men. But with proper emphasis on feminine differences. Like soft shoulders. Full bosom. And tiny waistline.

MR. AND MRS. LESTER PURDY

Lester Purdys To Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Purdy of Alma, formerly of Birmingham, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at an open house Sunday, from 2 to 6 p.m., given by their children at the CSA Hall.

The former Celestine Green was born Aug. 31, 1898, on Lone Pine Road, Bloomfield Hills, and her husband was born in Birmingham in 1894.

They were married Oct. 21, 1914, and have six children: Gordon of Mt. Pleasant; George of Saginaw; Thomas of Hazel

Park; Clare of Birmingham; Mrs. Janielle Davenport of Bath and Mrs. Elaine Studer of Alma. They have 17 grandchildren.

MR. PURDY was a charter member of the Birmingham Volunteer Fire Dept. and a building contractor preceding their move to Alma, where they purchased the Anne W. Wright farm next to Alma College. The farm was known and operated for years as the Riverside Dairy. It was sold a few years ago to Rolling Acres and Grand Development Co. for subdividing.

Since Mr. Purdy's retirement, the couple has spent winters in Bradenton, Fla., and summers in their home on Loon Lake, near Hiale.

Fall Rites

Gracey Shannon Vernor, daughter of Mrs. Patricia Dololon of Bloomfield Hills and the late James Vernor, has set Nov. 21 as the date of her marriage to Harold Cree Braun, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, Jr., of Rochester. The couple will repeat their vows at a ceremony in St. Hugo of the Hills Church.

To Wed

Mr. and Mrs. William Satterfield of Orchard Lake announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Deanna Louise, to Jon Sherwood Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Scott of Kalamazoo. Deanna is a senior at Western University, which Jon also attended. They have set Dec. 19 as the date of their wedding.

MSU STUDENT Carol Nichols of Pleasant Street, Birmingham, and Charlene Baby, Buckingham Road, both of Birmingham, are freshman roommates at Phillips Hall, Michigan State. Carol's sister, Anne, is a senior also at East Lansing.

Holy Name Is Scene Of Nuptials

At a ceremony solemnized Saturday in Holy Name Church, Mary Catherine Glaser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Glaser of Willow Lane, Birmingham, became the bride of Patrick Lawrence Jenkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick A. Jenkle of Detroit.

The bride wore a gown of imported silk organza over bridal taffeta, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline edged in Alencon lace, a controlled bell skirt and chapel train. An elbow-length veil fell from a circlet of taffeta and Alencon lace.

JOAN GLASER was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids included another sister, Gail, and Mrs. Cornelius Dykatal of Southfield. They all wore peacock blue taffeta with matching pillboxes.

Michael Jenkle of Detroit was

best man, and seating the guests were William Viviano of Detroit; Cornelius Dykatal of Orchard Lake and Thomas Glaser of Birmingham.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left on a wedding trip through the New England States and to New York. On their return, they will be at home on Ruffner St. in Birmingham.
