

B'ham Goes Japanese For A Day

KIM ABATA (FROM LEFT), FOREST LAKERS MRS. EINO NURME AND MRS. BETTY ATHERHOLT, MRS. TABAYOSHI ITO AND MUTUKO ITAMI (IN FOREGROUND)

In the manner of most country clubs, Forest Lake sets up its social agenda months ahead: So it was that a year ago Mrs. Elwood P. Engel of Franklin Road was pegged by women members to be in charge of one of this fall's monthly luncheons.

Not wanting to "come up with a dirge," to quote the conscientious Maiti, she racked her pretty blond head for a theme and suddenly realized she had it made.

The party at Forest Lake would be Japanese—revolving around the "Engels' house" guest, Kimiyo Obata of Tokyo, whom they are sponsoring during her two-year course at Arts and Crafts in Detroit. Kim's sister, Yki, is also in this country, living with Mr.

and Mrs. E. V. Bergstrom of Bloomfield Hills while attending Bloomfield Hills High School. So she was brought into the act.

Good fortune continued to rain on Maiti when she learned that Mrs. Tabayoshi Ito of Birmingham had as her house guest Mutuko Hani, also of Tokyo, who performed the rite of the formal tea ceremony in the Japanese Pavilion at the World's Fair all summer.

It was to this ceremony that Forest Lakeres were treated the day of their party.

Members, several of whom came in their own Japanese costumes, dined on teriyaki chicken, rice and sake—chopsticks available for the more adventurous.

Residents to Sell At Christmas Mart

Armed with order books and a contingent of Birmingham-Bloomfield area residents will join the volunteer sales force at the Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at Veterans Memorial in Detroit.

A perfect job of casting is the selection of the Frank Wilders to sell at the Carroll Reed Ski Shops for they will be out on the boards doing the slopes with the first fall of snow.

The Carroll Reed booth is one of the most popular of the 22 shops coming from all over the country to show their wares. Among the new shops this year are an art gallery, and pet portraits by artist Bill McPherson of Petoskey. Many gets in this area have "art" for Mr. McPherson.

Also new this year is Abernethy and Fitch and mending that booth will be Mrs. Herbert Rayer, Jr., Mrs. Bruce Craig, Mrs. William Daines, Mrs. Makool Lovell, Mrs. William Webster, Mrs. Robert Schuler, Mrs. Jack Seelye, and a husband and wife team, Mr. and Mrs. John Herrmann, Jr.

Others from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area who will be helping as salespeople are:

Mrs. William VanderKloot, Mrs. Palmer Sutton, Mrs. Archie Crowley, Mrs. Franklin Fosdick, Mrs. John Blanchard, Mrs. Charles L. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Albert A. Roberts, Jr., Mrs. H. R. Wilson, Mrs. Henry Forester, Mrs. Richard Denyes, Mrs. F. R. Robinson, Mrs.

Samuel Lang, Mrs. Marshall Fredricks, Mrs. Edward Larchen, Mrs. Elton Robinson, Mrs. Arthur Thompson and Mrs. Arthur Greenwald.

Others are Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Robert VanderKloot, Mrs. Arthur Buterbaugh, Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. Charles Letts, Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy, Mrs. David Bevin, Mrs. Paul Crider, Mrs. Alfred Davock, Mrs. Walter Hickey, Mrs. John Kerr, Mrs. Arthur Oles, Mrs. Norman Weston, Mrs. Robert Sisson, Mrs. Glenn Wilson, and Mrs. Matthew Zak.

Fun furs—that latest in winter fashions from Lilly Dache — as well as clothes from the other Mart shops will be modeled at the luncheons to be held Wednesday and Thursday.

Among the models will be Mrs. LeRoy Dahlberg, Mrs. Hugh Martin, Jr., and Mrs. Samuel Gawne. The Mart opens with a preview night and dinner Tuesday with the shops open from 5 until 9 p.m. Dinner a la carte will be served Wednesday night. Both dinners will be preceded by a Dutch treat cocktail hour.

Tickets may be obtained at the downtown Planned Parenthood office or at the Elizabeth Duffield Memorial clinic, 212 Daines St., in Birmingham.

Proceeds from the Mart go to support the birth control clinics which the League operates. Mrs. Robert McLean is co-chairman of the Mart for the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.
