Nothing more disastrous can come to a person than to be consumed with the evil emotion called "HATE". This terrible thing embodies just about every possible phase of wrongful human thought and action. Hate, allowed to run its course, brings harm not only to the object it thrusts its venom toward, but it perhaps inflicts greater harm upon its user. Hate carries its own disastrous boomerang!

HOMEMAKER CONTEST

Beat That Deadline With Entries Now!

The witching hour is closing in, Birmingham! Don't be caught with only a broomstick when it's time to charge onto the national scene heralding a Suburban Homemaker Winner from your own hometown.

Homemakers Conference in Chicago's Drake Hotel, Nov. 19 and 20. Preceding the Award Ceremony, local homemakers take part in "opinion study" discussions with a panel of national representatives in such fields as food and retail marketing, finance, health, television, magazines, radio, television, etc.

THESE DISCUSSIONS provide lively exchanges regarding buying habits, likes and dislikes as they relate to the homemaker's role as purchasing agent for more than one-third of American families.

The audience for these discussions includes representatives from business, industry, social service, government, advertising and other interested factors, as well as Suburban Press Foundation member publishers and their staffs.

It's a stimulating experience and one that the lady-of-your-choice, should she be a winner, will never forget.

Whip cream on the cake includes:

All an expense plane trip to Chicago for Homemaker and her husband. A two-day stay at the Drake Hotel, with luncheons, dinners, the theater and shopping interspersed with panel discussions and personal interviews. A $500 check to the local nominator if he comes up with a national winner.

It's worth trying for, Birmingham, so pick up that ball point!

Birmingham-Bloomfield abounds with the type of women the Chicago judges are looking for—this year's nominating letters proof of the pudding.

OF INTEREST to local judges Madge Davis, Mayor Charles Kenney, Bob Kenning, Margie Fawcett and Bob Kilpatrick is the stunning fact that TWO of last year's judges have been nominated for this year's homemaker. An indication, according to these officials, that the contest is coming of age—that people are more and more aware of talent unlimited in every community, aware of the value of our women, the type of responsibilities they accept.

As a refresher, keep in mind that the qualities contributing to the selection of the honored woman include civic responsibilities as well as homemaking abilities. The national winner, selected from local entrants by a panel of national authorities in a number of fields, receives the American Dairy Association award of $500 during the two-day National Suburban

Kappa Delta Sorority Celebrates its 67th

On Monday at 8 p.m. tribute will be paid to the founding of Kappa Delta Sorority at Wayne State University alumni home.

The Kappa Delta's of South Oakland Alumnae Association will cohesitate with the three metropolitan Detroit alumnae honoring members of Gamma Omicron chapter of Wayne as guests.

Mrs. John M. Clark of Birmingham, province alumnae officer, and Mrs. Donald L. Weldon of Bloomfield Hills, Lambda province officer, also will be honored guests. Among presidents who will be in the receiving line are Mrs. Wesley K. Smith of Southfield, South Oakland Alumnae and Mrs. Donald Greenbury of Farmington, northwest Suburban Alumnae.

THE 67TH anniversary of the sorority will be celebrated by its more than 50,000 members in 102 college chapters and 337 chartered alumnae associations. Kappa Delta was founded at Longwood College, Farmville, Va., on Oct. 23, 1897.

On founder's day, special tribute will be paid to its two living founders, Mrs. Arthur M. White of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. James Southall Wilson of Charlottesville, Va. Mrs. Wilson is the granddaughter of John Tyler, tenth president of the United States.

Kappa Delta South Oakland Alumnae Association's local philanthropy is the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children and Adults. This year they are sponsoring a Fashion Show on Nov. 11th at 8 p.m. at the North Congregational Church in Southfield.

The Lisbeth Shop of Birmingham will exhibit their fashion, with alumnae as models. The Franklin Shop will fashion the model's coiffures. Mr. Franklin will be the commentator.

It was "Hockey Night" in Detroit last Thursday and Olympia was packed. Many of the fans on hand to cheer the Red Wings and welcome back Ted Lindsay, after a four-year absence, were residents of the Birmingham-Bloomfield and Lathrup Village areas.

Giant vases filled with red and white carnations decorated the private Olympia Room as members gathered to dine from the buffet table and chat before the first puck was dropped.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raisch, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Greenawalt, Jr., Mrs. George Trumbull, Mrs. Carl J. Whirl, Mrs. Elliott Trumbull, William D. Seibert, the Larry Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Underhill, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Cavalieri.

Gov. George Romney was on hand to start the 1964-65 season by dropping the first puck.

Following the game, Mrs. Gordie Howe and sons, Marty and Mark, and Mrs. Bill Gadsby returned to the Olympia Room and were seen discussing the coveted plaque, designed and produced by Bob Raisch, which was presented to Bill Gadsby last year as the most valuable Red Wing player in the Stanley Cup play-offs.

Fall Holiday Climaxed By Trip to East Coast

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howell chose to take an autumn vacation and just recently returned to their Goldengate Drive home in Lathrup Village after two and one-half enjoyable weeks.

Their itinerary included a variety of things.

First stop was in upper New York state where they stayed with a sorority sister of Mrs. Howell's. After a relaxing visit touring the farm, built in 1743, situated on a 2,000-acre site, which contained several lakes, the Howells stepped up their pace and spent three days in New York City.

During the three days they toured the Fair and were fortunate enough to get tickets for "Hello Dolly."

THE NEXT THREE days were spent combining business for Mr. Howell and pleasure for Mrs. Howell in Atlantic City.

While Mr. Howell attended the business sessions, Mrs. Howell joined the other ladies for a tour of the winery, Boardwalk, and a few fashion shows. Home base in Atlantic City was the Shelbourne Hotel on the Boardwalk.

After visiting the historical sights in Philadelphia, the couple relaxed at Virginia Beach. A stop and extensive tour of Monticello (Jefferson's home), and an overnight visit with their son, Gary, in Williams completed an extensive and enjoyable trip.

IT WAS A DOUBLE celebration for Bob and Susie Raisch of Bungalow Drive last Thursday evening. They celebrated their 11th wedding anniversary by attending the opening game of the Detroit Red Wings. Mr. Raisch surprised his wife with a red and white carnation corsage for the duo event.

Little Jean Elizabeth Padilla arrived on October 11 and weighed seven pounds, 13 ounces.

Her parents are the Leo Padillas, new residents of Sunset Boulevard E. She joins Matthew, Katherine, J. and Judith, 2.

THE VILLAGE Square Dance Club held their second dance of the season recently at Northbrook School.

Chairmen were Bob and Ann Bowers. They were assisted by Gene and Pat Ormel, Jack and Marian Converse and Larry and Mary McLean.

Guests of the club included John and Mado Tallik, Jim and Jody Turner; Jack and Mary Ann Shelby; Kenneth and Olga Hemming; Bill and Elsie Young; Don and Bev; Whitson, Bob and Gwyn Zanders; and Jim and Barb McCroy.

Others included Maury and Eva Griffin; Russ and Betty Reynolds; and Bob and Jean Baxter. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kent were guests of the Ed Baribeaus. Ruth and Roy Boora became new members.

The next dance will be held on November 14 with openings for guests.

LATHRUP VILLAGE residents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Lanbourne of E. California will spend their anniversary quietly dining with their son, Gregory.

Previous to this anniversary, their 20th, they have enjoyed two recent trips to Canada and Youngstown, O.

Antiques Highlight Luncheon at Club

An antique accessory show presented by Daisy Dowling, Antiques will highlight the luncheon Friday at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club given by the ladies' activity committee.

Guests for the show and luncheon will include Mrs. John Deeman, Mrs. Fitzmorris Butler, Mrs. Herman Reichart, Mrs. Harvey Kresge and Mrs. Robert Thom.

Eastern Alumnae Sponsor Concert

Opening night of the new "Cabaret Series" of concerts by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, an all-Gershwin program, will be sponsored by the Detroit committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges.

The performance will be given Dec. 1, at 8:30 p.m., at the Light Guard Armory, 4400 E. Eight Mile Rd.

Purpose of the sponsors is to raise funds for Detroit area scholarships to Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mt. Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar and Wellesley, explained Project Chairman Mrs. William P. Harris of Grosse Ile.

THE PROGRAM will feature Earl Wild, pianist, playing "Rhapsody in Blue." Louis Lane, assistant conductor of the Cleveland Orchestra will make his first Detroit appearance conducting the Cabaret concerts.

This is an unusual form of musical presentation for Detroit. Beverages and snacks may be purchased during the performance. Reservations for tables seating four may be made by mail for opening night. Single admissions will be sold as available at the Armory on the night of the performance.

Mail orders accompanied by check made out to Seven College Committee, and self-addressed return envelope will be filled by Ticket Chairman Mrs. Elvino N. Vieira, 502 W. LaSalle Ave., Royal Oak.

THE DETROIT committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges is composed of Mrs. Sue Ross, Vassar, Detroit, general chairman; Mrs. William P. Harris, Bryn Mawr, Detroit, project chairman; Mrs. Louis Heaverich, Barnard, Detroit, vice-chairman and Mrs. William R. Braeburn, Barnard, 515 W. Waverly, Detroit, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Walter Ruddy, Bryn Mawr, Pleasant Ridge, is recording secretary; Mrs. John P. Denno, Smith, 650 Cranbrook Road, Bloomfield Hills, treasurer and Mrs. Herbert Fisher, Radcliffe, 150 Brady Lane, Bloomfield Hills, college information chairman.

Other committee members are

Mrs. James Harris Gram, Vassar, Grosse Pointe, patroness chairman; Mrs. William R. Eyer, Radcliffe, 1847 Bedford, Birmingham, program chairman and Mrs. William T. McNaughton, Wellesley, 1361 Cedar Road, Bloomfield Hills, special events.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Shay (nee Barbara Boegehold of Detroit) of 512 E. Southlawn, Birmingham, are announcing the birth of a daughter, Julie Margaret, on Oct. 8.
