Seaholm Edged; Groves Blanked

Barons, Lakers Fall To League Opponents

Birmingham's two high school football teams, Seaholm and Groves, ran into a rough week end of football as the Maples had the clock run out on them in a 13-7 loss to Berkeley and Groves failed to score in a 20-0 defeat to Thurston.

Both contests were league affairs and the results left Seaholm tied with Hazel Park and Southfield at 1-2 in the Southeastern Michigan Association, while the Falcons remained winless in the Northwest Suburban League.

Of the two games, Seaholm's was the heartbreaker. The Maples, after leading 7-6 in the first quarter, fell behind at the half, 13-7, and never got in front again although they gave it a go.

WITH 10 SECONDS left in the game Seaholm made it to the Berkeley one-foot line, but time ran out. Berkeley, playing an inspired game that tied them with Kimball and Ferndale at 2-1 in the league, rode the passing arm of quarterback Rick Krumm to victory.

The Maples scored first after intercepting a Berkeley pass on the Bears' 36. Quarterback Dick Swaney capped the drive by plunging in from the one. Mike Lawrie converted but he was never given the chance again.

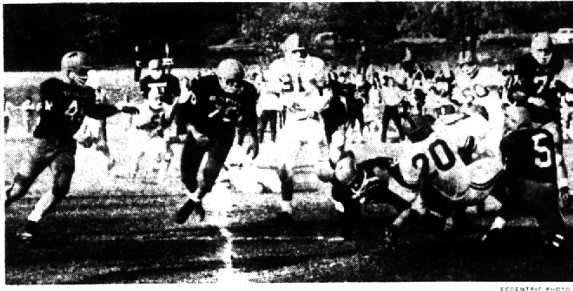

The Bears returned the ensuing kickoff to Seaholm's 44 and, two plays later, Krumm passed to Don Toney for 13 yards and a TD. The extra point was missed.

In the second period, Berkeley won 74 yards to score the winning touchdown as Krumm hit Jim Prince for a 33-yard scoring toss. Berkeley had an 8-7 edge in first downs, but Seaholm outstruck the Bears, 162-104 yards.

GROVES, UNABLE to score in two previous games, again failed to dent the goal line in a 20-0 defeat to Thurston.

The Falcons, 1-4 overall, allowed fumbles and an interception to set up Thurston's three scores, one in the first quarter and two in the final period.

Offensive mistakes cost Groves the game but they also suffered the loss of passing quarterback Mike Rafferty, who injured his hand Friday and sat out the game. (See EDGED, Page 1-E)

Southfield Stuns Hazel Park; Br. Rice, Cranbrook Defeated

Southfield waited until homecoming night Friday to score its first victory in the Southeastern Michigan Association, surprising Hazel Park, 13-0, with two last-quarter touchdowns.

The Blue Jays, now 1-2 in the rough-and-tumble SMA, sported a fine defense in holding the Vikings at bay while the offense slowly got rolling.

Kimball Ends Maple String In X-Country

All good things must come to an end for Seaholm cross-country coach Kermit Ambrose, the end came Oct. 13.

His harriers bowed to an opponent for the first time in 22 consecutive dual meets, Royal Oak Kimball, a well-balanced squad, achieved the feat, tipping the Maples, 24-35.

SCOTT BRADLEY of Seaholm was the individual winner, turning in another fine performance at 10:21, but Kimball swept the next three places, before Neal Touran and Mike Branc could cross the line.

Kimball's strategy, to keep Mike Beauchamp and Rick Droifuse close to Bradley, worked as the two were second and third, respectively. The Knights also garnered 7-10 places.

Seaholm had defeated Kimball, 51-95, in the All-Oakland County meet earlier this year. The Maple reserves, paced by Alex Greber's 11:09.4, defeated Kimball, 25-31.

Seaholm had won nine straight dual meets this year before the stunning defeat. The Maples will now prepare to defend their league crown at Kimball today.

ON OCT. 31, the Maples will enter their state regional at Cass Benton Park. Among the 22 teams, Seaholm's toughest competition should come from Milford, Farmington and Thurston.

Brother Rice came close to winning their first game in two years in the Catholic Central Division before bowing to U. of D., 13-12, and Cranbrook was blanked by Shady Side, 20-0, in an Interstate Prep League contest.

The Blue Jays, now 1-2 in the rough-and-tumble SMA, sported a fine defense in holding the Vikings at bay while the offense slowly got rolling.

THE LARGEST CROWD IN

three years saw Southfield launch a 70-yard drive late in the third quarter and then cap it on the first play in the final period as Jim Strittmatter ran six yards off tackle to score.

Hazel Park fought back but, with six minutes left, Mike DeLoe hit Gifford of Hazel Park as he attempted to throw and the ball fell into the arms of tackle Tom Zureher, who rambled 25 yards to score the final TD. Kane Boschma got the PAT.

Brother Rice came the closest in two years to a victory in the tough Central Division when they counted with two second-half scores, but then went down to defeat when both extra points failed.

U. of D. scored in the opening quarter when Bob Starr plunged over from the one after an interception on the Rice 30 set up the touchdown drive.

In the second period, Bob Valente went around end for a three-yard score and added the winning extra point on an off-tackle slant.

THE WARRIORS got to the U. of D. one but time ran out in the first half. They finally dotted the U. of D. goal line when quarterback Jim Chenet bucked over from the two. The senior signal-caller also scored in the final quarter on a six-yard run.

Rice got both their TD's behind the running of fleet-footed Dan Corrigan. Kevin O'Connor tried the extra points, but one was wide and the other blocked.

PULLS 14-0 UPSET

Country Day Tops Park

Detroit Country Day, having one of its most successful seasons on the gridiron, gave coach Larry Masteller his fourth win in five games Saturday and it was a big one.

They blanked Park School of Indiana, 14-0, to avenge a 46-0 pasting suffered last year. Key to the victory was the school's Masteller defense, which has allowed only six points in the five contests.

Bloomfield Hills and West Bloomfield, both with a chance to move into contention for first place in the Wayside-Oakland League, failed to halt explosive offenses Friday and dropped loop encounters.

The Barons, after scoring 19 points in the first quarter, added a last-quarter six-pointer but it wasn't enough to beat Northville.

Even a new fence encircling the playing field wasn't capable of corraling the Mustangs, who came from behind to win, 34-25.

WEST BLOOMFIELD, on the other hand, never had the lead. They fell behind 28-0 before they were able to get on the scoreboard and when they did, it was only once in a 26-6 defeat to Milford.

The two winners, now in a battle for first place with Holly, will square off against each other Friday.

The Barons and Lakers, meanwhile, dropped into a tie for fourth place with 2-2 marks.

Bloomfield will host Clarenceville Friday while West Bloomfield will meet Brighton.

The Hills displayed their best offensive showing of the year early in the game when they scored three times in the first quarter. Mike Kraatz put the Barons in front the first time they had the ball when he romped 45 yards off tackle on a trap play to score at the 10:19 mark. The extra point attempt failed.

The lead, however, was short-lived as Northville marched down the field following the kickoff to score at 7:47 when Doug Swiss went 15 yards off right tackle to tie it up.

WITH 2:16 left in the first period, the Hills pushed downfield behind the running of fullback Bill Barnes to go ahead. Barnes went around right end from eight yards out to score. Dave Robillard grabbed the PAT toss from Hugh Carney to make it 13-6.

The Barons stunned their visitors when, several plays later, defensive back Gary Fischer picked off a Mustang pass in the right flat and went 55 yards to paydirt, aided (See FALL, Page 2-E)

Bill Farrah Says:

"Better Service Has Done A Lot To Put Us In First Place In Oakland County!"

Yes, in just 10 months since I took over this Rambler dealership, we have moved steadily up into first place in Rambler sales in the County.

One thing that has helped do that, against some real strong competition, has been my insistence on giving the very finest service, work, materials and prices possible. Of course, the Rambler cars deserve a lot of credit too. Exclusive Rambler features like Deep-Dip Rustproofing right up to the roofline, the greater safety of rattle-free Single Unit Construction, the best official economy records and low first costs all add up to a lot more usefulness to the user . . . a lot of extra value it will pay to look into.

Olympic Medal Holds Memories

By MARION CASKEY

It was hard to reconcile the tall, glamorous blonde who greeted me at the door of her Franklin home with the image of an Olympic sprinter, but there were the medals to prove it.

Jeannette Dolson Cavill was on the Canadian team in Berlin in 1936 and won a bronze medal in the 400-meter relay.

Framed in the family room were 95 awards, including the Olympic medal, a trophy proclaiming Jeannette Dolson Canada's outstanding girl athlete in 1939 and a picture of her on Canada's women's track team for the 1936 Olympics.

JEANNETTE DOLSON Cavill ran the 100-meter dash and was the fastest runner on the 400-meter relay team, which placed third behind the U.S. and Great Britain. "But it was fun. I enjoyed it. And I'm glad I don't run today. It's too concentrated. We only trained three nights a week for three hours or so," she said.

In the winter, in Toronto, the team worked out in old, eerie warehouses with long halls. They had to go to practice by streetcar, as it was then the middle of the depression.

After their track event in the '36 games, the Canadian girls were informed that they could either go home or stay at their own expense. Jeannette went home and missed watching the second week.

JEANNETTE HAD A chance to see Berlin in 1936. That was the year Hitler only consented to present the medals won by the Germans. America's Jesse Owens was refused his dash medals.

How did Jeannette get started in track? She describes herself as a skinny child who could run fast. "I think it's just something you're born with. I came from a huge family, and there were no other athletes," she said.

"There was a great deal of interest in girls' school sports (See OLYMPIC MEDAL, Page 2-E)
