

Are We Living in Twilight Zone?

To The Editor: Have you ever wondered what it would be like to be a character in one of Rod Serling's series of "Twilight Zone," then suddenly realize that you really are in such a situation?

America was settled by individuals, for individuals; at least so history tells us. But what has happened in the last 30 years? If you believe you are an individual, who is supposed to make up your own mind and fashion your own destiny, you are labeled an extremist. The news media is blacked out to your cries for help to remain free as an individual American.

YOU MUST follow the leaders, the Reuthers, Hoffas and Kings along with other powerful leaders who remain anonymous, but who work diligently to make you conform to a society.

Describes 'Most Joyful Event' in Human Lifetime

To The Editor: Kudos to Ken Weaver for his recent "City Beat" column dealing with the best answer to the plaintive cry of the teen-aged suburbanite. "There's nothing to do!" Judge Gilliam's newsletter contained many good answers to this query. And Mr. Weaver obviously has the right idea in mind when he describes what the inner feelings are after enjoying all the wonderful and free recreation and entertainment the city of Birmingham has to offer.

THAT WHICH I have in mind is this: Is there a larger sense of accomplishment or satisfaction to be found than that of being able to say to oneself, after a week has gone by without any strife between teenager and adult, "My parents are proud of me?" Or, for that matter, "My community is proud to have me as a member?"

"Not one letter has been written to the Eccentric concerning rampaging vandalism or "Woodwarding," or minors buying cigarettes from vending machines. Ken Weaver might be out of ideas for his column, because there is no one here to write about. In Birmingham, the teen-agers are leading. And Mom and Dad almost flipped when I stayed home last night and studied for that physics exam."

Somehow, that, to me... is the ability to look with pride at one's self... is the most joyful event that transpires in a human lifetime.

ple as "The Masses." Our current phrase is "The Society." "A rose by any other name would smell as sweet," so said Shakespeare in the 16th century and that still holds true today if you just stop, ponder and study the developments in the past century.

Is America free? There are no underprivileged people in a free country, only those who refuse to exercise their privileges.

IF YOU are a laborer are you going to let Reuther or Hoffa usurp your rights and do your thinking for you? Does your race make you any less an individual American, capable of shaping your own future as a dependable human being?

Why not dignify yourself by obtaining the unadulterated facts yourselves rather than have someone else pretend to do it for you while furthering their own selfish interests.

Several years ago the word "welfare" was a dirty word and no self-respecting American would admit to accepting this form of assistance. Today it is a way of life for many so-called citizens.

There was a time when the word citizen was interpreted to mean a person who did his share, and contributed to a free and respected America. Today, the trend is to offer a subsidy for everything, including your character and mind.

WAKE UP America! Preserve the freedom that was inherited with the blood of our fathers, husbands and sons. Be a free contributing citizen when you pull that curtain in the voting booth and exercise your own God-given mind. Not someone else's.

Let us take one step backward to

Beverly Resident Eyes B'ham Traffic Problem

To The Editor: I would like to comment on your editorial which suggested not only that the Village Council of Beverly Hills permit the widening of Southfield Road between 13 and 14 Mile roads but also that 14 Mile should be cut through from Southfield to Evergreen.

I have heard and can appreciate all the arguments in favor of such projects which would be of obvious benefit to the City of Birmingham. However, it should be unequivocally clear to all that the foremost consideration of the village council must ever be for the wishes and welfare of the residents of Beverly Hills.

Dads' Dinner Staged at B'field School

By DALE HOWER
Special Writer

Bloomfield Country Day's dining room was filled to capacity on the evening of Tuesday, Oct. 24, when the girls and their fathers gathered for the annual Dads' Dinner.

In previous years the dinner was held in the spring, but in order to help the fathers get acquainted with the school and with other fathers, we broke tradition.

In order to make the occasion more personal, the girls undertook most of the work. The invitations were designed and printed by Patti Richter, July Rogers and Marcia McCuen. Jill Young, Jerry Jackson and Linda Olsen were responsible for placecards.

Bonnie Rotenberg and Phyllis Borin headed the group in charge of setting the tables. A committee headed by Kathi LeMessurier and Barbara Jenkins decorated the room in bright fall colors in keeping with the Halloween season.

The menu, including pumpkin pie, was prepared by a group of girls headed by Winn Spitzley, Bonnie Martin, Nora Koskinen and Margie Foren. The dinner was a served family-style by waitresses under the direction of Maggie Ploch and Susie Judd.

After a few words of welcome by Miss Sallie, the guests were entertained by the choir, under the direction of Mrs. D'Arment, the music teacher.

get the right perspective for that big leap forward out of the twilight zone. In our hearts we know what it is right.
