

Local Girl To Marry In Jamaica

The engagement of Mary Laurie Gossett to David Randall is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gossett of N. Glenhurst, Birmingham. David's parents are the Donald C. Randalls of Dowling, Mich.

Both young people are teaching in the same high school in Jamaica, where they are serving with the Peace Corps.

Laurie was graduated from the University of Michigan, where her sorority was Delta Gamma, and David attended Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. He has won many honors in swimming—was All American.

The wedding ceremony will take place late in November in Jamaica, where the couple will continue their service before returning to Michigan.

B'ham Woman's Club Sets Dept. Meetings

"What Price Are You Willing to Pay," presented by Dr. D. L. McKinney, is the program planned by the Birmingham Woman's Club.

The monthly dessert tea meeting will be held at the Birmingham Community House Tuesday at 12:30 p.m.

Hostesses for the day are members of the fine arts department with Mrs. Lawrence Middleton as chairman and Mrs. Landon B. Boyd, hospitality chairman.

MRS. THOMAS P. Gordon, program chairman, is being assisted this month by Mrs. Herbert S. Christner, representing the modern living department.

Mrs. Frederick P. Betz, president, and Mrs. James P. Lowman, first vice-president, represented the Birmingham Woman's Club at the southeastern district convention in Adrian and will give a combined report on convention events.

Other members that attended were Mrs. Forties S. Hascall, president of the Oakland County Federation, and Mrs. Ralph Main, past president of the southeastern district and newly-elected to the Girls Town Board for 1965-66.

HOLIDAY inspirations will begin early for the American home department when they will gather for the Nov. 17 meeting at The Consumers Power Company, 4090 Coolidge Road, to hear a talk on "Holiday Table Toppers." Mrs. John Walrath is hostess for the dessert at noon.

Members of the fine arts department will have a luncheon at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Melvin Sterner. Guest speaker for the day is Mrs. W. A. Steele, whose subject is "Questers Purpose."

Kenneth Weaver will be the guest for the day of the literature department and will speak on "City Beat." Mrs. C. F. Butters is hostess for the 12:30 p.m. luncheon with Mrs. Emerson C. Brown, chairman for the day.

The modern living department will hold its dessert meeting at the home of Mrs. Russell F. Stem with Mrs. Norman Clark and Mrs. James P. Lowman assisting.
