Plan UNICEF Drive In Eastover School Area

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

Mt 6-16-2

As darkness descends on Hallowen night there will be the sounds of cackling and excited chatter as all the little ethosity of the control of the trek.

In the Eastover School area, there will be many groups, some of which will be accompanied by parents, that will do their "begging," with orange and block UNICEF cattons. The pennies and mickels gathered in those two short hours will be sent on to help the hungry and underprivileged children of other lands.

As IN THE PAST the children in the Charing Cross Estates are looking forward to the subdivision party Halloween night.

Dressed in their Halloween garb they will meet at the Haunted Hollow (known the rest of the year as the pump house lot) at dusk for the pump house lot) at dusk for the traditional parade and the pump house the pump house of the Book at the subdivision triangle, entertainment and the judging of costumes by sage groups and family groups will take place and refreshments will be served all the little spooks, goblins, witches, etc. House-to-house begging will complete the evening.

The Walter Haslers of Winch-combe Drive spent last week end enjoying Chicago. They attended the performance "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum," shopped and toured some of the night spots.

Mrs. Benjamin Foley of Ledbury Drive will open her home on the afternoon of Nov. 2 to members of the Chapel Hills Garden Club. Their guest speaker, Mrs. H. Crook will lecture on "Dried Mate-rials."
