

Martians Attend 'Pre-Halloween Party

By MARIAN CASKEY
MA 6-8850

Costumed as everything from African tribesmen to green Martians, 50 guests of the Maurya Huffmans of Grimaby Lane joined in some pre-Halloween partying last Saturday night.

There was a polar bear, a flapper with ruffled bloomers, a perfect Gevontine, Ringo Starr, a Ubangi—and the host and hostess were outfitted as court jesters. Maurya had purchased a juke box for the Huffman family room on which guests played "Hello Dolly" far into the night.

In time to welcome son George Irving Road have recently been receiving guests from Europe, as is usual for this cosmopolitan couple.

From Dusseldorf, Germany, came Mrs. Heinz Thoma, who is Christian, and her young son, Prudi, who lived with the Petersons a few years ago. Mrs. Thoma reports that Prudi, now aged, is about to go to boarding school with her husband for two years.

No sooner had Mrs. Thoma departed than another European came, friends of Margie and Tom de Morawitz, now of Geneva, arrived to spend a few days with the Petersons. The de Morawitzs became friends of Margie and Tom when they lived in Detroit eight or nine years ago.

Bob DeBonham of Wellington Drive is making a sentimental journey to New York City this week end. The occasion is a reunion of his Navy buddies.

Of with her husband on an exciting business trip is Mrs. Richard Ferris of Wellington Drive. Children and Duck will be spending the week in Europe visiting London and Munich.

THE CHARLES Petersons of

English Lady, Daughter To Visit Kai Hansons

By GLORIA JESSUP

Lady Rowlandson, wife of Sir Graham Rowlandson, and their daughter Margaret of Harnes Green Inn, North Welwyn, Hertfordshire, England, will be arriving on Nov. 5 for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Kai E. Hanson of San Diego Boulevard, Lathrup Village.

Sir Graham Rowlandson will remain in England to manage the finance of 134 hospitals in London where he is directly responsible to the Minister of Health, while his wife and daughter come to America on an educational trip. The trip is a graduation gift for Margaret.

After an "all too brief" visit with their old friends, the Kai Hansons, Lady Rowlandson and Margaret will go to Chicago, Washington, Miami and then to New York before they board the La France for the trip back to England on Nov. 25.

NOV. 5 is a special date for another group of residents, those of Cranbrook Village North.

The members of the Cranbrook Village North branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association have been working toward this particular date for the past five months.

The ladies have been busy since June with the knitting needles clicking, the sewing machine humming and the pampering of those lowly cucumbers to become very special pickles.

The climax of all the months of work will be shown (and be for sale) when the branch holds its first bazaar in the recreation room of Mrs. S. Copeland Lawrence at 18555 Autumn Lane in North Cranbrook Village (off 13 Mile Road).

FOR THE early birds who arrive when the bazaar opens at 10 a.m., there will be coffee. After the 10 o'clock break the bargain hunters will take their pick of the knitted garments, baked goods, aprons, Christmas centerpieces, wall hangings, tote bags, Christmas tree skirts, Barbie doll knitted outfits and other gift ideas and those pickles, carefully grown and named by Mrs. Michael Osargos.

Chairman of the November bazaar is Mrs. Hugh Clark. Her committee consists of Mrs. Howard

Bauer, Mrs. Galien Hobbs, Mrs. James Lickly, Mrs. Earl Schmidt and Mrs. Fred Theidlor.

ON NOV. 2, the members of the Lathrup Village Women's Club will meet in the Fellowship Hall of the Community Congregational Church at 1 p.m.

Two talented ladies, Dorothy Reid and Jane Wisby, will perform a set of monologues and dialogues about "Women You Have Known." The title of their performance is "Two Gals."

Hostess of the day is Mrs. Gordon Lawton. Pouring at the table will be Mrs. J. R. Beat and Mrs. E. A. Long.

If many more hurricanes appear this year we may have to change their feminine names to zip codes.

It is not true that bats carry common lice or bedbugs. Bat parasites are peculiar to bats and will not attack man. It is also untrue that bats willingly entangle themselves in women's hair.
