Seek Housing for Mexican Students

BY ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

Time is fleeting! People who are interested in making application to provide housing for Mexican students for an approximate six-week stay should do so as soon as possible.

It is to be made clear that people who will open up their homes are not expected to treat their house guests as they might visiting royalty but rather to show these youngsters our "everyday way of life."

It is not necessary to have any dinner parties or to take them on vacations unless this is something which has been previously planned by families and then of course it would add to the enjoyment of the stay. There are still several homes needed for boys 10 through 16 years of age.

Last year when the children arrived there were several who had not as yet been provided with housing which caused a bit of last-minute anxiety.

Mrs. James Bronson of 3123 Middleburg Lane will give interested parties all necessary details. The students are expected to arrive at Thanksgiving.

The Cranbrook-Maple Association held its meeting at the Westchester School on Oct. 22 and elected Joseph Fraher president. The new vice president is Jack Shaeffer; treasurer, Fred Pant, and secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Busha. Advisor is the past president, Jules Alford.

ONE OF THE many "kick-off coffees" held in connection with the Torch Drive was at the home of Mrs. Walter Cook of Breckenridge on Oct. 15.

Women attending and receiving their literature with which to canvass the area were Mrs. Robert Weir, Mrs. R. A. Lennox, Mrs. Philip Leonard, Mrs. Herbert Oppenheimer, Mrs. C. D. Landy, Mrs. Ted Mikus, Mrs. Wilbert McClain and Mrs. Vincent Sahil.

Unable to be at the coffee but also volunteering their services are Mrs. Edward Reppa, Mrs. William Sesena, Mrs. Michael Wilhelm, Mrs. Henry Fiebig, Mrs. Harold Moulain and Mrs. William Grier.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM McCormick of Grand Rapids breezed into Birmingham on Oct. 16 to spend a long week end with the G. P. Davey's (the gals are sisters), of Wadsworth Lane.

On the agenda for Saturday was golfing at Plum Hollow and on Sunday the foursome drove to Toledo for a buffet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Calhoun, the Davey's son-in-law and daughter.

THE JOSEPH MOREAU'S of South Williamsburg had perfect fall weather for their vacation. Leaving on Oct. 12 they drove first to Hidden Valley where they spent four restful days.

Then it was on to Big Rapids where they attended the homecoming festivities of Ferris College where their son Joe is a junior.

Leaving on Sunday they went on to Chicago where they head-quartered at the Conrad Hilton while visiting with their daughter, Jeanette who is in nurses training at Cook County Hospital. One evening was spent at Matt Iglar's, a dining place in Chicago well known for their singing waiters.

Early in the month of October, Mrs. Carter Chamberlain of Chamberlain Drive flew down to Dallas, Tex. for a 12-day visit with her mother.

OCTOBER 20 found the John Agar home on S. Cranbrook Cross Road alive with female conversation when the once-a-month bridge group, of which Mrs. Agar is a member, met in her home.

The women, all former residents of Pleasant Ridge, formed the club high on to a decade ago with an additive incentive to their cardplaying. A portion of their dues are used for a philanthropic endeavor.

Cobstesses for the afternoon were Mrs. John Blair and Mrs. Paul Hlifs. During the first part of September, Mr. and Mrs. Agar traveled to Chicago where they attended the convention of the Telephone Pioneers of America.

Mr. Agar is president of the Wolverine Chapter in Michigan.

CONVENTION TIME proved to be a wonderful vacation time for the Everett Harrison's of S. Cranbrook Road when they flew down to Dallas, Tex., on Oct. 14 to attend the Financial Executives Institute Convention.

Ten couples from the Detroit area were part of the 1100 persons in attendance for the 33rd annual meeting. While the men were attending meetings the women were escorted on a tour of the city and were shown the latest fashions of Neiman-Marcus while enjoying a delicious luncheon.

They were presented with a Texas-size teaspoon (the spoon being the actual size of a table-spoon). The couples saw a rodeo and experienced a true Texas-style barbecue, served under tents and attended the Texas State Fair.

At the Cattleman's Restaurant, where steaks were "out of this world," they found the waitresses dressed as ranch hands. A dinner-dance was held on Saturday, the night before their departure.

And, as always, they met neighbors at the convention, the Donald Schrebers of Bloomfield Hills.

MR. AND MRS. ANTHONY Frank of 540 S. Cranbrook Road celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Saturday by attending a dinner party in their home to which relatives and close friends were invited. The previous evening the Frank's traveled through Indiana and visited with the pastor who married them a quarter of a century ago in Bedford, Ind.

House guests in the LaFontaine home on Teynham Place for a 10-day stay were Mrs. LaFontaine's mother, Mrs. Nellie Anderson of Belleville, Ont., and an aunt, Miss Lily Anderson.

MR. AND MRS. WILFRED Bauknight of S. Glenngarry Road left on Oct. 3 and headed for Eastley, S.C. where they visited with Bauknight's mother for several days and then drove on to Gatlinburg, Tenn. where they stayed to enjoy the countryside.

They then went to Memphis where they spent some time with Mrs. Bauknight's mother, Mrs. R. Kelly, before returning to their home on Oct. 17.
