

Crane Soccer Team Plays 4 Tie Games

By DAVE GILBERT
Special Writer

Cleveland University School on Oct. 24 could be blamed on no one but the Cranes themselves, as they saw a 4-2 lead go down the drain late in the second half.

THUS, WITH A few bad breaks and a few playing lapses, the Cranbrook soccer team has compiled its strange 2-0-4 record (having beaten Hawken, 1-0, and Chatham College, 3-0), with four games left on the schedule.

Obviously, the Cranes do not want to even think about another tie.

ON OCT. 11 Cranbrook and Bloomfield Hills High School battled to a hard-fought 1-1 tie, with Bloomfield's goal coming on a penalty kick, which they were awarded because the Cranes had an extra man on the field.

The following Saturday, Oct. 17, at Pittsburgh, the Cranes played their best game of the year, but only managed a 2-2 draw with Shady Side.

The Indians' second goal came on a shot which everyone (including the Shady Side coach but excluding the referee) felt did not go into the net.

Motion Pictures Used In Kingswood Classes

By MARY JANE HILDER
Special Writer

In the past few weeks Kingswood has been making frequent use of the motion picture for educational purposes. Students have had the opportunity to see three interesting and thought-provoking movies.

The first, shown on Oct. 16, was entitled "Boundary Lines." The picture was a controversial one which dealt with the idea of imaginary boundary lines drawn between religions, nationalities, races and regions.

included choral music written by the music professors and sung by the College Glee Club.

The third film, "Frames of Reference," shown Oct. 28, was viewed by science and history classes. The film consisted of a series of physics experiments which stressed the importance of a frame of reference by which to judge motion.
