Area Church News First Baptist Plans Special Program on S. S. HOPE

B. MURRAY HULSE, First Baptist Church, says this isn't about a letter from some man named Walrus to a girl named HOPE. It's about the transformation of a ship named as the Maine Wages from a World War II hospital ship to a privately operated medical missionary ship, now called the S. S. HOPE.

large extent, volunteer their service to bring modern medicine without charge to areas that medically are in the stone age. What letter way of convincing foreign peoples that America is sincere in its desire for a better world, if not free from poverty, free of the abysmal depths of medical knowledge that poverty breeds? ... A FEW MONTHS ago another in that country not only was a smashing medical success but also a political one, for although none of the suspicious natives met the boat on its arrival, 10,000 tearful people waved goodbye.
