College Football Lures Area Residents

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN

The irresistible combination of Team summer and football drew the Charles Myers, Ralph Claysons, Ben Sweeney and Don Batts to Ann Arbor for the Michigan-Minnesota game. Afterward the four couples had dinner at Hillside Inn in Plymouth.

The next day professional football lured the Myers out for the Detroit Lion-Baltimore Colt game.

Also taking in that debacle were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grigby, Jr., of Kenmore Road who were accompanied by their son, John Cautley of Pine Lake Road from Detroit.

John Cautley of Pine Lake Road from Detroit, took his son, John, and John's friend, Dennis Sage, to the Michigan-Minnesota game. Earlier in the season Mr. and Mrs. Cautley attended the Michigan-Minnesota State game in East Lansing with Mr. and Mrs. George Chittin of Ann Arbor.

Off to Ann Arbor Saturday for the Michigan-Illinois game are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ditz of Old Orchard Drive with friends from Ypsilanti.

THE EPISCOPAL Churchwomen of the Church of the Advent will meet for lunch at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday at the church.

Guest speaker is Miss Betty Decker, coordinator of school and community agencies of the Great Cities School Improvement Project in Detroit.

Mrs. Alexander Riker is chairman of the luncheon meeting. Mr. and Mrs. John Fraser of Kilbrennan Road watched the election returns come Tuesday night at a party given by friends in Franklin Knolls.

MARSHALL ENGLE who is in charge of the greenhouses and the floral displays in the various buildings in Greenfield Village was guest speaker at the Oct. 26 meeting of the Brookfield Highlands Garden Club, held at the Turner Road home of Mrs. Omer Bowler.

Mr. Engle demonstrated dried flower arrangements and described how they are used in Williamsburg.

Two wedding anniversaries are in the news. Oct. 27 was the 44th anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Newell of Lake Park.

The Newells' three daughters—Mrs. Frederick Henkel of Quenton Road, Mrs. John Vander Roast and Mrs. Robert Warner—all live in Birmingham and were with their parents for the great day.

OCT. 14 was the silver wedding anniversary of the Roy Elders of Putnam Drive. They celebrated on the 17th at an open house for 62 guests given in their honor by Roy's twin brother, Ray, of Southfield.

Two more Eder brothers and their wives come from Indiana for the festivities, as well as two sisters and their husbands. They were Mr. and Mrs. James Eder of Brazil, and from Center Point, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas and Mrs. Pat Thomas.

Also from Indiana came Mrs. Roy Eder's sisters and their husbands, the Gaylord Bakers of Fort Wayne, the Ralph Gearharts of Silver Lake and the Clifford Zoblowskis of South Bend.

The George Bywaters, Joseph Flubachers and Clarence Myrold were among the 16 members of St. Andrew Lutheran Church who attended the Oct. 25 cottage meeting held at the home of the Robert Donleys of Braemore Trail.

MRS. JOHN ANKER of Middlebelt Road returned Oct. 18 from a week's visit with her family in Massachusetts where she was the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. A. Adams of Wellesley Hills.

She was joined on the 14th by her son, John, Jr., for whom the trip East was in celebration of his 13th birthday.

While John and his grandmother went to New York for the World's Fair, Mrs. Anker accompanied her brother, Alfred A. Adams, III, aboard his sport fisherman on a cruise across Massachusetts Bay and a shark-hunting session in the waters around Provincetown.

NO SHARKS were harpooned but the warm, sunny weather made the outing ideal.

As a change of pace, Mrs. Anker attended the theater in Boston and saw Burgess Meredith in "I Was Dancing."

Before the flight home to Michigan on the 18th, there was a family dinner party to mark John's birthday. Present for the occasion was his great-grand-uncle, Miss Clara A. Adams, 94, of Chestnut Hill.

THE JOHN QUINNS of Fieldbrook Road were in Chambersburg, Pa., the week end before last for the observance of Fathers Day at Penn Hall Junior College where their daughter, Susan, is a freshman.

Lynn Parker, daughter of the Donald Parkers of Sutters Lane, entertained eight classmates at a spook party last Thursday evening.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES Rudell and their six children of Blackburn Drive will be moving soon to their new home in Atlanta, Ga.

Native Michiganians, the Rudells lived in Royal Oak before moving to New England Estates seven years ago.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Tassi of Middlebelt Road, W. Bloomfield, announce the engagement of their daughter, Rosemary Toni, to Michael J. LaRose, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. LaRose of Birmingham. Miss Tassi is a senior at Marygrove College and her fiance attended the University of Detroit. A June 26 wedding is planned.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Morgan III (nee Barbara Hohart) of East Lansing announce the birth of a daughter, Tracy Elizabeth, on Oct. 19. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Hohart of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. William C. Morgan Jr. of Deland, Fla., formerly of Birmingham.
