acquaintances will drop in to say "hello" to her in her literary surroundings where she says not only to they have all the best sellers but also a complete line of the classics, or if they do not have what you are seeking will be only to happy to get it for you.

THE NOVEMBER meeting of the Berkshire branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will be held at the Birmingham Federal bank at Maple and Lathrop on Tuesday at 12:30 p.m.

Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. A. Hartung, Mrs. Charles White and Mrs. Frederick Schwartz. Their program will be entitled T. F. T. or S. F. N., which translated will mean Treasures from Trash or Something from Nothing.

OCT. 5 found Mr. and Mrs. Frank Minninger of Crosslick heading northward in the state for a two-week vacation.

In the vicinity of Otsego they found four inches of snow and when in the Potosky area experienced some tricky driving. They returned home to repack their bags for a short stay at the Women's Club Inn only to have it rain during their stay there.

Fortunately, the Minningers were interested in resting so the elements weren't too disappointing.

MR. AND Mrs. Nick Mitchell of S. Cranbrook Cross Road and their two sons, Peter and Mark, spent the week end of Oct. 24 attending the Founder Day events at Howe Military Academy where their son Ted is a senior student.

The Fred Pantis of S. Williamsbury had their silver wedding anniversary recently, but rather than celebrate on a given day they went out for dinner several times during the month with various friends and also attended the Perry Como Show which was televised from Coco Hall.

MR. AND MRS. Leo Willick of Woodbank have returned home after touring the eastern part of Canada for their vacation. Mrs. Willick was especially happy about being able to add to her collection of Blek china while there and also found Quebec a fascinating city.

Mrs. Ralph Schumack of S. Cranbrook Cross Road had to postpone her trip to Washington, D.C., where she intended to spend election night visiting her sister. Instead she is hospitalized with a broken bone after a somewhat freak accident. She missed a step while leaving a neighbors home.

MR. AND MRS. Roy Mercer of Glenway felt people would want to celebrate or crown their sorrows on election night and in either event it would be a good night for a party so they commended the thought with the idea of a "christening" (they recently moved into their new home) party.

Eighty guests were invited to participate. The Mercers, who moved from Walled Lake, have three children, Jerry, a student at the Groves; and Julie and Jeff, who are both attending Meadow Lake School.

Mr. Mercer is a contractor. Mrs. Mercer has been active in the Auxiliary of the Michigan Aid Society. The entire family loves to ski.

IF EVER a Halloween party was a success it certainly was the one planned and held by Marjion Michie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Michie of Castle Drive, on Saturday.

Marjion, a student at Bloomfield Hills High School, really went "all out" in creating the effectiveness in decorations. Spotted from the road were twin ghosts covering the driveway lamp posts.

These were spotlighted in an eerie blue and swayed in the slight breeze. Boards had been nailed across the front entrance to suggest a haunted house and arrows directed the guests to the back where they had to crawl through a window to enter.

The entire basement recreation area was covered with black fish black fish netting to which were planned giant spiders and bats. It was necessary to crawl under this to get into the room.

In one corner was the wicked witch with her black kettle from which steam seemed to be coming. The effect was created by putting dry ice in the kettle.

Marjion even carried out the theme by serving among other things, orange jello. Guests who tried hard to have the most unusual costumes were Nancy Ruppel, Renee Miller, Pat Stephanian, Jayne Ziolkowski, JoAnn Manz, Cindy Michie and Dianne Trussler.

Others were Jeff Koeritz, Joe Lloyd, Frank Horan, Ken Shank, Chuck Townsend, Kurt McCarty, Dan Root and Bob Trussler.
