

SPORT FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

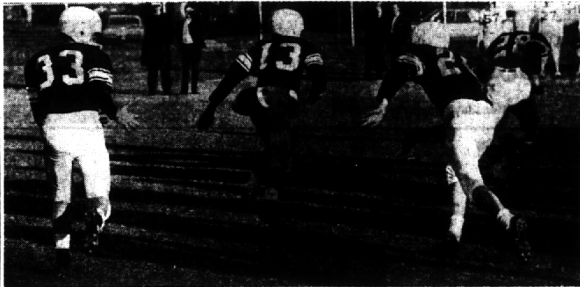

By Dick Turner

Here's one of the most fascinating football stories of all time... Perhaps you know it, perhaps you don't. Back in 1942, Boston College was the number one team in the country...

Sports teams get their nicknames in many different ways, but the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League got theirs in the most unusual way of all...

I bet you didn't know... That you can pay more, but you can't buy better. This is the best year yet to go Ford!

New Alleys Yield Red-Hot Scores At B'ham Bowl

The new alleys recently added at Birmingham Bowl are providing some red-hot scores for members of the Birmingham Senior House League.

Monday night Don Dector rolled games of 269-184-266 for a 718 series, second best of the year. He fell one pin short of the 719 mark set by John Basinski a month ago.

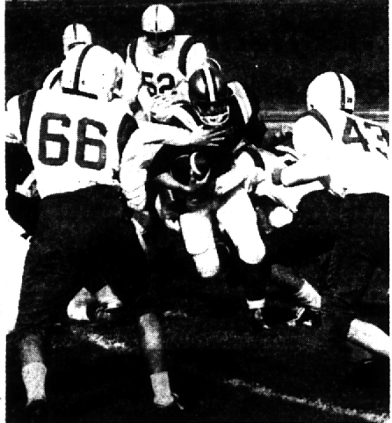

Last Thursday evening, Don Porteus came within four pins of a perfect game. Porteus had a string of 11 straight strikes, then came in light and carried six pins on his final throw for a 296 score.

REDFORD BOWLING SALON won three from Torrence Oil on Bedford's Dick Wittly, 203 in 580, and Dave Cashman, 205 in 573.

Demonstrating that his sore elbow now feels fine, Russ Dector and Birmingham Drug to a three-point triumph over Pierce Realtors with games of 206, 211, 234 for 651.

The night's final match saw Conkin-Palmer Insurance sweep four points from Reichhold Chemical by winning the second game by three pins, 919-916, and the last by 15, 924-909.

Racking up his first 600 of the season was Conkin's long, tall Bill Andreychuk, 205, 200 in 600.
