

Groves Yearbook Wins Three National Awards

By NANCIE BOUWMAN
Special Writer

The 1964 Groves yearbook, the Talon, received three top national awards.

They were the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, who awarded the Talon with the medalist award. The National Scholastic Press Association presented it with the all-American honor rating, and an A-1 was presented by the National School Yearbook Association. Only about fifty high school yearbooks throughout the United States are presented with all three of these.

THE 1964-1965 Talon went on sale to all students on Monday. The sale will continue through the week. The 264-page book plus the summer supplement costs $5. The book alone costs $4.50 and if the summer supplement is purchased in the spring it will cost 75c.

Fifty-eight electoral votes for President Lyndon Johnson and thirty-five for Barry Goldwater were the results of the mock election held at Groves.

There were 1,076 popular votes cast, 571 for Johnson and 502 for Goldwater, with a plurality of 66 votes.

The classes that participated in this event were: United States history (honors), modern European, economics, social psychology, government, and international relations.

Others were United States history, world history, and United States history (special). Students not in one of these classes made up state X.

ON TUESDAY an open house was held for the parents of Groves students. At that time the parents went through the daily schedule of their child.

During ten minutes of the class the parents had a chance to get to know the teacher and to learn what is going to be covered during this year.

The total amount donated to the United Foundation by Groves was $828.85. Our goal was set at $840.00, missing it only by $11.15. Last year our total was only $370.00, which was obtained this year on the third day.

IT WILL soon be time for the annual junior candy sale. This year the juniors will be selling Morley Brothers candy, which will be available in five different kinds at $1 a box. The sale will start on November 16, and continue for two weeks, until the 30th.

"Swinging into Fall" was the title and theme of Country Day's first dance on November 7. The girls and their dates danced to the music of the Troubadours.

The girls insured the fet that they would dance with boys other than their dates by using dance programs. They had the first, last and refreshments dances with their dates and then traded partners for the others.

Country Day Celebrates

Detroit Country Day paused Saturday to celebrate its 50th homecoming anniversary and, at the same time, honored their founder, F. Alden Shaw. The Yellow Jacket football team put the sting to Grosse Pointe University, 14-13, as the float (above) shows, and the school dedicated the new F. Alden Shaw Field at halftime ceremonies. Participating in the ceremony (below) were (from left) Stan Evans, founder Shaw, Mrs. Shaw and Rockwell Gust.

LeMessurier, including Judy Rogers, Bonnie Rotenberg and Barbara Konzelman, decorated the gym in fall colors. The dance partners were Mr. and Mrs. Felix Hower, Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Rotenberg.

dame R. Roy, the French teacher, gave a small party for the rest of the faculty to honor Mrs. Larry Boughtner.

Mrs. Boughtner is the head of the English Dept. at Country Day and is presently taking a leave of absence. The luncheon was held at the Women's City Club in Detroit.

Here are three kinds of tigers. We sell two.
(Have you priced a tiger lately?)

The quick ones are ours. The agile ones. That's a Pontiac Le Mans, top left. Fierce. You can get it with 250 hp like most people. Or 285 hp like some. That's a Pontiac GTO, above. Ferocious. Comes complete with 335-hp Trophy V-8. Bucket seats. Hurst floor shifter. Dual exhausts. Heavy-duty springs. Redline tires. Even a real walnut dash. The whole package. Lithe. Lean. Nimble. That other tiger? A puzzled cat. He checked out a "sporty" kind of car, learned it doesn't come with fangs at that stripped-down price. You look around. You'll see.

RUSSIAN DRESSING
RECIPE FAVORITE

It seems we're using more foreign recipes that once sounded very exotic and strange. In fact, we've adopted so many ideas from Europe that today there probably isn't a cupboard that doesn't contain several kinds of salad dressing... and look at the names. Shedd's Italian and Shedd's French... and now we can add Shedd's Russian for something special in variety. One of the cleverest hostesses I know has a simple salad idea that's very effective. She prepares an enormous bowl of greens using several kinds of lettuce, spinach, endive, escarole... whatever she finds is fresh and good in the market. These are crisp and cold, of course, and torn in bite size pieces, not cut. Around the bowl of greens she places several bowls of dressing, perhaps two each of Shedd's Italian, Shedd's French and Shedd's Russian. Guests help themselves and generally return in seconds in order to try more than one variety of dressing. Since Shedd's Russian is a new one perhaps you'd like to try a different combination of flavors in a salad. This one was designed for Shedd's Russian Dressing and the blend of flavors in the ingredients is as subtle and delicate as the dressing itself:

- 12 large fresh mushrooms
- 1 medium cucumber
- 1 sweet white onion
- Spinach and lettuce

Shedd's Russian Dressing

Wash and slice the mushrooms thinly. Wash cucumbers, remove outer skin partially to leave stripes of the dark outer part and slice very thin. Slice the onion and separate into rings. Chill all these ingredients in ice water and then dry thoroughly by patting with paper towel. Arrange on lettuce and spinach and when ready pour on Shedd's Russian Dressing liberally. Garnish with sieved hard cooked egg yolk.
