

Huntley Residents Invited To Party by 'Black Cat'

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

A Halloween costume party that will be all but impossible to trip was given by Huntley residents Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Harnum and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Mills, next door neighbors on Pickwick Lane.

Many preparations and much planning went into the party, in fact the air of secrecy and mystery was so thick that none of the guests even knew where the party was to be held or who their hosts were.

All had received several mysterious notes, each mailed from a different post office box number and signed by the Black Cat for a month before the party, and good sports that they were, the guests all went along with the instructions.

They were met by Black Cat Mrs. Mills at Dodge Park (the Beverly Hills police had been notified in advance) and followed the Mills and Harnum, both of whom had borrowed different cars, back to Huntley where they stopped at various homes in a further attempt to confuse the group before making their final stop.

THE DECORATIONS included the traditional pumpkins, black cats, and other spooky paraphernalia and tables were arranged in cabaret style for the midnight dinner.

Among the guests were Sir Lancelot and Lady Guinevere, Tired Hood and New Blood, Cleopatra, Santa Claus, Mericla Adams, a male ballerina, two clowns, a French apache dancer, "Ratier Fight than Switch," and a white

Hospital Auxiliary Plans Yule Fair

The first annual Christmas Fair of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital auxiliary will be held Nov. 23 and Nov. 24 in the Mercy School of Nursing auditorium.

The hospital is located at 500 Woodward Avenue, Pontiac, and the auditorium is immediately south of the hospital at 126 Fulton Street.

The fair will open Monday at 10 a.m. and continue until 9 p.m. and run Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Mrs. FRANK Audette is the chairman of the fair assisted by co-chairman Mrs. Gail Smith, both of Bloomfield Hills.

Auxiliary members and the gift shop director, Mrs. John Geovjan, have been searching since spring in New York, Chicago and Detroit for unusual gift items for the bazaar.

Mrs. John L. Wiant and Mrs. Robert Nelson are chairmen of the Gourmet Booth and Mrs. Arthur Wendt and Mrs. Leo Wischman have stocked the Christmas wrapping, cards and paper products booth to solve gift wrapping problems.

MRS. WILLIAM Wink and Mrs. Harry D. Hall will have Christmas decorations from Fairtime by Silvestri of Chicago and New York. Another chairman is Mrs. Raymond Lyons who is heading the Boutique and Import Booth.

Mrs. Lee Griffin and Mrs. Darrell Miller are chairmen of the Jewelry and Accessories Booth and Mrs. John Donaldson and Mrs. Ben Jerome, Jr., chairmen of the Children's Booth.

MRS. JOSEPH Gatz and Mrs. George Tomcek will chairmen the Toy Booth and the Household Booth is headed by Mrs. James Mitchell and Mrs. Robert Daly who have items glamorizing your home.

Mrs. George Stevens and Mrs. Louis Hagegan are making plans to transform the auditorium into a winter wonderland with a carnival air.

Mrs. Joseph Spadafoe and her committee are arranging a tea to be held in the parlor while Mrs. Paul Toepf has helped the Junior Auxiliary painting posters, handbills and addressing cards.

Eight local couples will greet visitors attending the opening session Friday evening. Those from Birmingham are Dr. and Mrs. John Bartlett, 31330 Cline Drive; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Birchard, 156 Hillboro; Mr. and Mrs. John Harnett, 17389 Dunblaine; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ives, 619 Overhill; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kline, 18201 Devonshire.
