Pine Lake Estates Plans Candy Wreath Workshop

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN MI 7-2324

The Pine Lake Estates branch of the Women's National Farm & Garden Association meets tonight at 8 at the home of Mrs. Edwin Koepke, 4115 Westover Drive, for a candy wreath workshop.
 Members are asked to bring wrapped hard candy and coffee can rings, if available, or embroidery hoops.
 The wreaths, which take about two pounds of candy each, are made by wrapping florist wire around one end of a piece of candy and attaching it to the ribbon-covered ring or hoop. The wreaths will decorate gift baskets going to needy families at Christmas time.

Cobhostesses assisting Mrs. Koepke this evening are Mrs. Bernard Bleisch and Mrs. Morgan Davis.

THE NEW ENGLAND Estates Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. Herbert Eddy, E. Newland Drive, Tuesday evening. Guest speaker was Alfred Goldner of the landscaping firm of Goldner-Walsh, who showed slides of his trip to Russia.

Cobhostesses were Mrs. Ben Sweeney, Mrs. Al Georgeff and Mrs. Ralph Clayton, President of the association.

this year is Mrs. Carl Johnson of W. Newland Drive. Mrs. Sweeney is secretary-treasurer.

THE HOUR that many of us stood in line waiting to vote last Tuesday is just a fraction of time compared to the 24 hours that Mrs. Robert Mooney, Jr., of Middleton Court, spent at her polling place.

Mrs. Mooney was one of the election workers at West Bloomfield Township Hall and had to be there at 6 in the morning. Since the law states that workers cannot leave the voting premises until all votes have been tabulated, it was necessary for Mrs. Mooney and her coworkers to bring food with them for the long day.

After the polls closed at 8 p.m., there was still a line of voters inside. Then the absentee ballots had to be counted, as well as the paper ballots. So, it was 5:30 a.m. Wednesday before Mrs. Mooney saw her family again.

Said she: "It was a very interesting experience. Exhausting, but rewarding."

A small gathering of friends watched the returns come in election night at the home of the Robert Homans of Pebble-shire Road.

DR. AND MRS. JOHN Thomson of Middlebelt Road have been entertaining friends at a series of Sunday evening dessert parties at which they show slides taken during their three-week trip to the coast last summer.

The Thomsons traveled in a rented house trailer with their children, Jeff, Wendy and Robert. On the itinerary were Grand Canyon, Tia Juana, Hollywood, where Peter Telesbury showed them around Universal City, San Francisco, Lake Tahoe, Salt Lake City and Colorado.

In San Francisco, they visited the Dale Brubakers, former residents of Bywood Road, Bloomfield Hills, who moved to California a year ago last July.

THE NEW RESIDENTS in 470 Walnut Lake Road have come a long, long way to Kirkwood. They are Mr. and Mrs. Burke Hyde of Adelaide, Australia, who lived down under for five years.

The Hydys are native Americans, she of Boston, and he from Kentucky, who were married six years ago in Skaneateles, N. Y. Soon after the birth of their first son, Burke, Jr., Chrysler International transferred them to Australia where their second son, David, was born.

The Hydys came back to the states on home leave every two years and have traveled in the Far East, visiting Hong Kong, Japan and New Zealand.

Burke, Jr., is in kindergarten at Meadow Lake School.
