WHEN ONE TRAVELS TO Europe one encounters many strange experiences. One of these unusual experiences happened to Mrs. James Krimian on the recent trip she and Mr. Krimian took abroad.

Being an avid antique hunter, Mrs. Krimian took advantage of a coffee break and wandered off on her own to an antique shop just across the street.

Due to her limited use of the language, Mrs. Krimian found herself acting as the proprietor of the shop which almost caused her to be late rejoining her husband and the rest of the tour.

The Krimians flew from Detroit to London to begin a 27-day stay abroad. Highlights included a boat trip to Amsterdam, a 4,500-mile sightseeing trip by bus with a five-and-one-half-hour trip down the Rhine River past the famous Lorelei as the bus traveled along on the road to meet the tour group as they embarked.

Inbruck, Austria, Venice, viewing Turin from both Florence and Italy, four days in Rome where they stood just 25 feet from the Pope where he favored the group by saying "salute Detroit."

Other stopovers included the French Riviera, Monaco, Lyon, St. Etienne, Paris and again London before the return trip home.

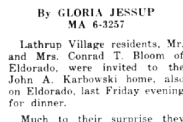

TWO YOUNG ladies, Tammy Paynter, daughter of the Richard Paynters of Northgate, and Jane Wilsber, daughter of the Donald Wilsbers of Autumn Lane, carried out their traditional Halloween giving again this year.

As in the past two years, the girls dressed alike, this year using the patriotic theme for the election year. They were dressed like Betsy Ross and gave out American flags. Last year they were zippers and gave out fun-tunes.

The year before they were Dutch girls and gave out paper moids.

Dr. and Mrs. John Bryan and their daughter Beverly of Rock Creek Drive were among the "first nighters" who attended the black tie premiere of "My Fair Lady."

Wedding party of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad T. Bloom.

A wedding trip to New York City followed the noon rites uniting Mary Eileen Jacobsen and John Richard Falker Saturday at Precious Blood Church.

Parents of the newweds are Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jacobsen, 17500 Melrose, Southfield, and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Falker of Detroit.

The bride selected a gown of ivory-hued silk peacé de soie enhanced by sprays of leaded Alençon lace on the controlled skirt and the attached chapel train. A border of matching lace clustered with seed pearls circled the neckline of the gown.

A TAPERED PILLOX of the same pearled Alençon lace secured her bouffant veil of imported French silk illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Anthony Hudalla of Newport, R. I. served as honor attendant, while the bride's cousin, Diane Danser, assisted as bridesmaid. They wore floor-length Empire gowns of jadeite peacé de soie, while their headpieces were four bows of Jadette velvet.

Richard DeLamielleure assisted as best man, and ushers were Kevin Beattie and William Phelps.

A breakfast and reception at the Dearborn Inn followed the ceremony. After their honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Oak Park.
