New Personnel Service Opens In Birmingham

Two area businessmen have announced the formation of a new personnel service to be located in Birmingham.

Donald Beebe of Bioomfield Hills and Harold Christy of Troy will open the Michigan Personnel Service at 770 S. Adams on Monday. Christy, 29, recently resigned from the Birmingham police demander of the business. Beebe, who is also head of an automotive promotion firm, will act as president. . . .

"WE PLAN to deal with both "WE PLAN to deal with both prospective employees and employers," Christy said. Although the firm will operate only in the Birmingham area for the present, Christy said plans icall for the expansion of operations to cover a pansion of operations to cover a larger area soon. Michigan Personnel will special-ize in providing an employment service for persons on the profes-sional and white-collar levels.

Foreign Students To Entertain at Groves' Hillbilly Hop

The American Field Service Club of Groves High School has planned as from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. The dress from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. The dress is casual, with jeans preferred. A five-piece band from Groves, A five-piece band from Groves, The Centaurs, will play. The group includes Bob Robily, Dick Rosemont, Rick Reynolds, Bob Rose and Ton Lindamond.

Rick Reynolds, Bob Rose and Tom Lindamond. AFS students will also Fraction although their program has been kept undereover. Reported clues are that all three play musical instruments. Rob Kelly of Scotland played the guitar in a band in Scotland, Rekha Mehra plays a native Indian stringed in-strument made from a pumpkin, and Joachim Turoff played the cello at home in Germany.
