PLAN, PREPARE, RELAX—ENJOY YOUR GUESTS

The first rule to being a good hostess is to enjoy your guests yourself. So, of course, you always try to have as few things as possible to do the last minute in the kitchen. It takes a little extra planning to be a relaxed hostess . . . not always keeping up to watch the roast or make the gravy or put the salad together. Prepare the basic gravy in advance and just heat it through later will take care of the gravy. Vegetables in a casserole that can wait a bit if necessary . . . and a dessert made early in the day. If the roast is beef or pork, try a quick trick with Shedd's Salad Dressing. Mix a tablespoon of prepared horseradish and a few drops of tabasco sauce with one cup of Shedd's Salad Dressing, to be served with the roast. Naturally, you've chosen a molded salad for your dinner and have made it the day before. We call this one "Out of this World Salad" and you'll find that men love it because it's hearty and tangy, and women love it because it's pretty to look at as well as easy to make.

- 1 package lime gelatin
- 2 cups boiling water
- 1 large can evaporated milk (chill 24 hours)
- 1 carton small curd cottage cheese
- 1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple
- 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
- 1 cup Shedd's Salad Dressing

Dissolve both packages of gelatin in the boiling water and allow to chill till slightly thickened. Drain pineapple well. Beat evaporated milk till foamy and add cottage cheese, pineapple and Shedd's Salad Dressing. Beat again and add nuts. Fold in the partially set gelatin and chill till set. This will fill a large ring mold and serves 10-12 people.

Over age 50? How about YOUR life insurance

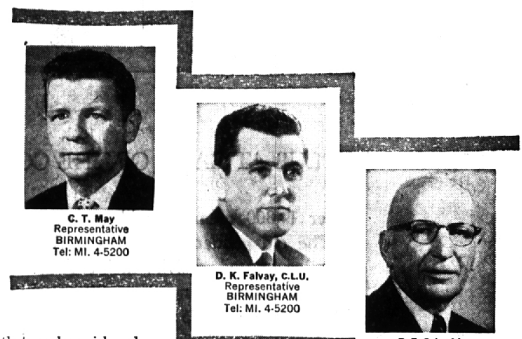

The 50's bring new dimensions to life and to a man's need for life insurance. The children have grown up, retirement is not far away and the tax people are getting interested in your estate.

You need a lifetime income for your wife—a requirement that is emphasized by the life expectancy tables and the three out of five chance that wives will outlive their husbands.

A surprising number of people have taxable estates these days, thanks to inflated values. Estate taxes could be a thorny problem for your heirs and may require the sale of irreplaceable assets.

Age 65 for most men brings retirement—years that can be a rich and satisfying experience if you have enough income.

The ideal solution to all these problems is Life Insurance, guaranteeing immediate cash or lifetime income depending on the need. Talk to the Man from Manufacturers. You'll find him especially helpful in measuring your present insurance against these "new dimensions" after 50.
