From Hong Kong to America: Connors Look to Thanksgiving

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Gregory, Deborah and Denise Connors are looking forward to a Thanksgiving dinner in the good old U.S.A. after living for several years in Hong Kong.

"The worst part for them of Thanksgiving overseas was having to go to school on the holiday," said their mother, Mrs. Leland Connors of Normanwood Drive.

The Connors always managed to have the traditional dinner since frozen turkeys, dried mince-meat, canned cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie filling were shipped in from the states; and sweet potatoes are a popular staple in the Hong Kong diet.

The meal was prepared by their Chinese cook, Cookboy Lee, and the Connors children always in-vented several Chinese classmates to share the feast with them.

This year in their new home in Pine Lake Estates, guests of the Connors will be Mr. and Mrs. James Coppedge of Detroit.

holiday in a new home are the Charles Rudells, formerly of Blackburn Drive.

At Metropolitan Airport last Wednesday Mrs. Rudell explained for Atlanta with her four sons, two daughters, basset hound named Handsome Herkimer (Herkie for short), and Topcat, the family's black and white cat.

It was the children's first plane ride, also Herkie's and Topcat's, and a very exciting experience.

The Rudell's new address is 2061 Oak Grove Road, N.E., in the Briarcliff Woods, N.E., section of Atlanta.

Dr. and Mrs. John Thomson and their three children of Middle Belt Road will go to the Indianwood Lake home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sura, for a large family dinner next Thursday.

Also present will be Mrs. Thomson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sura of Detroit and another brother, Judge Theodore Sura, and his family of Beverly Hills.

University of Michigan, his wife and two youngsters of Ann Arbor.

Other guests will include Mrs. Frederick Phelps' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Riley of Grosse Pointe and Mrs. John Phelps' mother, Mrs. Oscar Schultz of Detroit.

GUESTS OF the Edwin Karpicks of Kingsmill Drive for Thanksgiving dinner will be her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Holden of Columbia City, Ind.

Robert Liesicki, who celebrated his eighth birthday Monday, spent the week end at Camp Ohyesa with the Indian Guides. He is the son of the Robert Liesickis of Hutchins Hill Road.

THE COUPLES club of St. Andrew Lutheran Church will hold an adult children's party Saturday night at the church. Members will dress in children's

They Combined Know-How

Mrs. Harry J. Altick (left) of Birmingham and Mrs. Clarence A. Kramer of Grosse Pointe, with the assistance of dozens of committee members from both areas, put their stamp of efficiency on the Antique Show sponsored last week by the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries. The annual, four-day event drew antique-lovers from all over the State, resulting proceeds a heart-warming experience for those who worked so hard. Mrs. Altick is president of the group; Mrs. Kramer does publicity.
