

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Play Solves Scots' 'Undercover' Puzzle

By GLORIA JESSUP

Would you like an answer to the perpetual question, "What do the Scotchmen wear under their kilts?"

If this question is still unanswered in your mind, you better make plans to attend the first presentation of the Village Players this week end and learn the answer.

The answer will be forthcoming in the presentation of "Poul's Paradise" which sounds like a wonderful dip but apparently it is not. The mystery will be solved when the curtain goes up at 8:30 p.m. on Nov. 20 at the new location, Birney School, which will accommodate 600 people.

DUE TO POPULAR demand, there will again be an art show. Chairman is Mrs. Charles Buhler of Cedar Bend Dr., Bloomfield Hills. Co-chairman Mrs. Vincent Zatliff of 59725 Sunset Boulevard West, Lathrup Village.

Mrs. Zatliff announced that new talent is welcome and she will be accepting paintings which are ready to hang until Nov. 20.

If you already know what the Scots wear under their kilts—you may still want to see "Poul's Paradise" just to see Jerry and Ted (who in real life are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mansfield) play those torrid love scenes. See you on the 20th (or the 21st)!

DRS. WERNER and Ursula Blount of Sag Quentin Drive, Lathrup Village, have returned to their home and their practices after a trip abroad.

Mrs. Bloufuss flew by jet four weeks ago to see her mother, Mrs. Agnes Rilaf in Bad Oeynhausen, Germany. Two weeks after her departure from the U. S., her husband, Dr. Bloufuss, joined the ladies.

The doctors spent some of the following two weeks in Vienna, Venice, Pacha and the Merano resort before rejoining Mrs. Rilaf for the trio's return to Lathrup Village.

This marks the second visit that Mrs. Rilaf has made to the Northern hemisphere. We welcome Mrs. Rilaf, who is 78 years YOUNG and flies over the ocean by jet. The Bloufuss family said Mrs. Rilaf will stay over Christmas and they will try to keep her in the U. S. until spring. American-style, Mrs. Rilaf, may we wish you a "Happy Holiday!"

THE COMMUNITY Congregational Church is still ringing of do-si-does from the Lathrup Supper Club which met for their November dance last Saturday evening.

Chairmen were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Iverson. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heaton, Dr. and Mrs. William Appleyard, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Borden and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fox.

Dad and Peggy Frenchie were guests of Dr. and Mrs. William Unkerfer; Allen and Helen Schenk were guests of Ted and Jerry Mansfield; Mary and Mrs. Richard Cogger brought their daughter and her husband, Jim and Carolyn Lay.

The Walter Howells invited Vern and Dorothy Edmonds and Dr. and Mrs. Neil Thurwachter asked Alex and Janet Sturrock to be their guests. Guests of the club were George and Marilyn Cracraft.

AMONG THE FALL vacationers that have recently returned are Mr. and Mrs. James Lickly of Northgate. They spent 11 delightful days in sunny Naples. They rented an apartment and renewed friendships with their Florida friends.

Also back from the southland are the Bill Henrys, also of Northgate. The Henrys flew to Miami to attend the American Bankers' Convention. During their eight-day stay away from Michigan they took a few days to tour the Florida Keys before returning home.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 962 has been busy recently. In the last two weeks the Junior Girl Scouts and their leader Mrs. Roger Tylian and assistant leader, Mrs. Lee Shulman, have visited Jack Miner's Bird Sanctuary in Kingsville, Ont., and last Thursday evening the scouts attended the Ice Follies.

The Girl Scouts will be knocking on your doors within the next week to sell the Girl Scout Calendar. Welcome them and give for many worthy projects.

The Rodney Crawford family, consisting of Beth, 5, and Vicki, 3, are on the move again. They spent some time in Europe this past summer and had rented their home and are off for another 18 months.

Mrs. John Green of Northgate Drive entertained at a bon voyage "coffee" for Mrs. Crawford last Wednesday.

The Crawford family left last week for Charlotte, N. C. to visit Mr. Crawford's sister and family before departing for New York where they will embark for Europe.

Forest Lake C.C. Honors President

The annual President's Ball was held at Forest Lake Country Club, Saturday. The event will honor the club's president Victor R. Cramer and Mrs. Cramer.

Entertainment featured "Gabby, Gabby, and Milkie" Spanish comedy act direct from the Palmer House, Chicago, and Ursula Walker, vocalist from radio station WJLH. Dance music was provided by George Alfano's orchestra.

Well, for one thing, they whisper about the wonders of VELVETEX, the newest and most luxurious of wall coverings!

Whisper-soft VELVETEX sheaths your walls in real nylon velvet...deep, rich pile velvet in your choice of 17 basic colors and an infinite variety of tones. And it can be embossed to match the beauty of expensive cut velvet.

Whisper-quiet VELVETEX absorbs sound just as your carpeting does and your acoustical ceiling, making your home a haven of relaxing quiet.

Whisper-warm VELVETEX traps air in its fur-like surface, just like a sable coat...keeps your home warmer in winter, cooler in summer.

Whisper-quietly applied (over any surface, by the way) with each nylon fiber standing straight up, each charged to repel dirt and dust.

Now, wouldn't you say VELVETEX is worth whispering about—especially if it's not too expensive? Well, it costs no more than deluxe vinyl wall coverings, fabric coverings or mural wallpaper. And forget about application bother and mess. VELVETEX's own experts help you choose it...their own workmen apply it quickly with no fuss!
