Kooky Combinations

The mixed-up look is "in." Tweed skirts team, not with solid color blouses, but with stripes and prints for fashion's charming way of breaking the rules. A taupe-grey-and-white striped shirt is the choice for a nubby plaid skirt. A "foxhunting" print on blue cotton challis with a platter-colored necktie and button-on bow joins the other skirt.

Club Hears Talk on Make-Up

More than 180 women were present when Mrs. Lawrence Flora, 1567 Island Lane, Bloomfield Hills, was installed as chairman of the Christian Women's Club which met at Devon Gables Tea Room Nov. 11. Proper skin care and application of make-up were presented by cosmetics representatives Mrs. Norman Janisse, 5787 Sutters Lane, Birmingham, and Mrs. Thomas Schoenher, 1800 Austin, Troy.

Accompanied by Mrs. Douglas Liefield, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus say" and "Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus," were sung by a trio comprised of Mrs. Louise Ursu, 2840 Farmingdale Drive, Birmingham; Mrs. Ralph Salansky, 27119 Arlington Drive, Southfield; and Mrs. Dennis Knight, 1659 Haynes, Birmingham.

SPEAKER of the afternoon, Mrs. Kenneth Pike, M. A., teacher of linguistics at the University of Michigan, discussed art forms in different places around the world. She is engaged in full-time work with the Wycliffe translators and told of some of the unusual experiences encountered in putting the spoken language into writing and especially in finding words among primitive cultures to explain the meaning of God.

Library Friends Hear Plans for Area College

Dr. John E. Tirrell, president of the Oakland Community College, will speak to the Friends of the Baldwin Public Library at the first meeting of the 15th anniversary year. It will be held in the library auditorium at 8:15-p.m. Tuesday.

Dr. Tirrell will discuss plans for the future development of the community college which will be open for classes in the fall of 1965. Approved by the voters in June of this year, it is the 19th community college in the state of Michigan.

Just recently the college acquired its first location at the former Auburn Heights Nike Base and the staff has moved into the new quarters.

A NATIVE of Muskegon, Dr. Tirrell has had extensive experience in community college work. He was formerly associated with the Grand Rapids Junior College and the St. Louis, Mo., Junior College and has served as president of the Michigan Association of Junior Colleges and as a member of the Governor's Commission on Community Junior Colleges.

George Mosher of Birmingham, chairman of the six-member Board of Trustees of Oakland Community College, will introduce Dr. Tirrell. The Tuesday evening program is the only meeting scheduled during the annual membership drive of the Friends. Mrs. George Malone, membership chairman, is welcoming interested persons in the community to attend and learn about the program and objectives of the Friends.

FOLLOWING the meeting there will be the usual afterglow at which time members can chat informally with Dr. Tirrell about the new community college.

Mrs. George N. Hilfinger and Mrs. G. Thomas Christiansen are in charge of the arrangements.

Enchilada One of Many Ways with the Tortilla

The tortilla is the mainstay of the Mexican diet. Served in various ways, the tortilla takes on different names and different tastes.

A pancake-like bread, the tortilla is patted out by hand from masa, a corn meal dough, or the flour dough which is preferred in the Far West and Southwestern part of Mexico.

When toasted and broken into pieces, the tortilla may be used as a basis for a dip and is then transformed into tostitos — the forerunner of corn chips. When the soft tortillas are wrapped over beans, meat, cheese and chili, they become tacos.

Tortillas are enchiladas when wrapped around a meat mixture and served hot with a highly seasoned sauce. Que-pasaillas are turnovers made with tortillas filled with cheese.

THE COMMUNITY House (Bates and Townsend in Birmingham) is serving "enchiladas" on its prefill Mexican dinner Friday and Saturday night, as an example of this popular dish.

TORTILLAS DE MARINA
4 cups flour
2 tsp. salt
½ cup lard
1 cup warm water (more if needed)

Sift flour and salt together; work lard into it with the fingers; then stir in enough water to form a firm ball. Knead very well and form into egg-sized balls. Cover and let stand 20 minutes. Then roll out until they are about 7-8" in diameter. Roll tortilla around filling made of cooked ground beef, chili beans, onion, cheese and seasonings, and fry on greased griddle until lightly browned. Serve with Enchilada Sauce.

ENCHILADA SAUCE
½ cup chopped onion
1 large clove garlic, minced
2 tsp. lard or olive oil
1 tsp. flour
½ cup chili powder
½ tsp. oregano
½ tsp. ground cumin
1 tsp. salt
1 cup tomato puree
1 cup water or stock

Cook onion and garlic in lard until wilted. Add flour—cook one minute, then add other ingredients. Simmer 10 minutes before serving. Yield—2 cups.

Study Tells Saving For Home Prepared Over Frozen Foods

A U.S. Department of Agriculture study compared the cost per serving of frozen and of ready-to-serve cakes and pies with the same foods prepared in the home from the original ingredients.

For the seven cakes and pies studied, the home prepared product was less expensive in cost per serving than the frozen or ready-to-serve product. Homemakers may also prefer the quality of their own home prepared cakes and pies, but this, of course, is a matter of personal preference.

Accompanies Dinner

Marinate slices of tomato in vinegar, oil and organo. Crumble American blue cheese on top of the tomato slices and serve as dinner accompaniment.

Boil Bottle Corks

When vacuum bottle corks become too small after repeated use, they can be brought back to normal by boiling them in water in a covered pan. This sterilizes them, too.
