

Cranbrook Dads Hold Annual Awards Night

By DAVE GILBERT
Special Writer

This Friday, the Cranbrook Dads' Club is sponsoring the Fall Awards Night. All parents of Cranbrook students are invited to this assembly which will be held at 8 p.m. in the Assembly Room.

Varsity letters in soccer, football and cross country will be awarded, and next year's captains will be announced. Academic awards will also be made, including National Merit Scholarship awards.

On Saturday, Nov. 14, Cranbrook's varsity soccer squad appeared on WXYZ-TV, at 7:30 a.m. Movies for the show were taken at Homecoming by Mr. Edward Davies, father of Rod Davies.

CRANBROOK'S SOCCER coach, Robert Ueselis, helped narrate the show; also featured were Captain Dick Moon and goalie Jim Bailey.

Several Cranbrook students have been given the opportunity to participate in the Cranbrook Music Guild. At the first concert, on Oct. 27, they listened to the Beaux Arts Trio of New York.

Last Tuesday, Nov. 17, they attended the second concert and heard Sheila Stephenson and Rodney E. Stenberg at the annual Young Artists Concert.

The faculty advisor of the Cranbrook boys is Mr. Anthony Fruhauf and the student chairman is Brock Landry.

On Saturday, Nov. 7, Cranbrook defeated Nichols School from Buffalo in both football and soccer. The football victory came late in the game on a 37-yard field goal by Mark Mayerstein.

The soccer team, by beating Nichols 1-0, on Captain Dick Moon's goal, handed the New Yorkers their first league soccer defeat in several years.

Barnum Team Ends Near Perfect Year

By AMY KELL

Barnum's football team finished with an undefeated season by beating Groves Nov. 11, by a score of 19 to 6 and capturing second place in the Little Oak League championship.

Barnum's attack began in the first quarter when quarterback Jim O'Neill threw a fifteen yard touchdown pass to Scott Clarkson. The pass for the extra point was good as O'Neill hit Mike Hilkene in the end zone.

Barnum scored in the second quarter when O'Neill, on an end run, scooted 20 yards for the score. When Barnum got the ball again they wasted no time adding to their lead when Mike Hilkene hit Jeff Mays for a 25-yard touchdown pass. The extra point failed as Hilkene's kick was off to the left.

IN THE SECOND half, Groves scored on a long pass play in the fourth quarter. Their extra point was no good.

Barnum finished with a fine 5-0 record and their defense allowed only three touchdowns this season. Much credit should be given to Coach Stoll who guided the team to a victorious season.

MR. STARON, dramatics director, has announced the largest cast to perform in a Barnum ninth grade play. On Dec. 4th and 5th these students will stage a production of "The Mouse That Roared."

The girls in the cast are Prady Carmon, Martha Hook, Celeste Davis, Nancy Halmhuber, Pam Boyd, Nancy Steiner, Claire Bill, Pam Martin, Barb Smuts, Sue Dick, Jill Julbrend, Sue Howell, Ruth Raymond, Linda Frost, Lisa Stangor, Jen Wills, Janet Quail, and Margaret Jartens.

The boys are J. C. Collins, Bill Zeis, Mark Morrison, Tom Zane, Ron Albrecht, Jim Coulter, Jim Reddig, Robin Roter, Pete Loiko, Russ Barnett, Bob Rohr, Brad Howell, Tom Mulligan, and Jim Silcock.

HONORED at the Optimist Club Nov. 11 were the following students from Barnum: Frances Seiler, Mike Hilkene, Constance Hanna, Roger Bird, Susan Chamblain, and David Pothier.

Ninth grade students received tuberculin tests Nov. 16th.

Mr. Ross Wagner, principal at Southolm, explained "The Birmingham Plan" at the faculty meeting on Nov. 9.
