Foreign Students To Be Welcomed

A hootenanny to welcome the foreign students of a 10-church area reaching from the inner city to rural Orchard Lake will be held at Christ Church Cranbrook on Sunday evening from 5 to 9 p.m., Dec. 6. The young people of these Episcopal parishes will act as hosts and hostesses on behalf of the women of these churches who are sponsoring the entertainment.

Mrs. Charles Guilford commented: "We want to have an introduction to the Christmas season come to these young people from the church and a welcome in the name of Christ to those who might otherwise mistake the Holiday season as a department store promotional project. These students are certainly not all Episcopalians and some may not be too familiar with Christianity, but there will be

Christmas music and a brief service in the church at 5 p.m. in which they may be interested in participating or observing.

At 6 p.m. a stand-up, help-yourself-type supper will be served in the dining room and hootenanny entertainment will be led by Marvin Bell, new young minister at St. David's, who will bring his guitar and be assisted by the local rock and roll combo, "The Road Runners," whose leader is Dud DeNador of Bloomfield Hills.

"YOUNG PEOPLE these days face so many barriers . . . international, economic, racial and social. We hope this type pathing will help pull up any roots of prejudice," said Mrs. Guilford. The Marquis Club, the youth
