

East Hills Teen Club Splash Party Held in Oakland Pool

By LINDA HONG
Special Writer

Oakland University was the location for East Hills' splash party held on Nov. 14 as a regular meeting for Teen Club members.

The University's pool and gym were in use Saturday night from 7:30-10 for swimming, basketball and volleyball. The next meeting will be held on Dec. 4 at East Hills and a fun-night has been planned.

A film, "The Making of a President 1960", was viewed by all students Nov. 13. The film informed the student body of the campaigns and nominations of the 1960 presidential candidates during the national election.

THE FIRST edition of the East Hills V.I.P., the school newspaper, was issued Nov. 17 and 18. The staff includes Sheryl Burrell, editor-in-chief; Steve Cohen, associate editor; Brad Veselick, sports editor; Vicki Hirschfeld, society editor; Chris Brill and Mike Miller, art editors; Doug Jaakst, business manager; Dave Auer, public relations; and Bob Jeffe and Bob Blodgett, proofreaders.

Reporters are: Denise Jennings, Sandie McMullen, Tom Gregerson, Lisa Kaichen, Shelly Shannon, Anne Merryman, Diane Rasche, Cathy Scott, Chip Marston and Jim White. Miss Silverman and Mr. Kevern are the faculty advisors.

Pep Club met for the first time Nov. 10 after school. Plans were made to elect officers at the next meeting. Under its sponsor, Miss Silverman, the club explained the purpose of creating more school spirit by publicizing coming sports events. The club has also undergone the responsibility of selling pom-poms and other items to the students.

Basketball officially started Nov. 17 at East Hills since that is the day practice began. Boys wishing to try out for the varsity team may practice after school four days a week before the Cavaliers basketball team is selected.

CANDID CAMERA Day swept through school on Nov. 20 leaving many amusing incidents behind. Students were given the day to snap pictures whenever and wherever it was permitted.

Some of the photographs will be placed in the yearbook and this fact seemingly encouraged the cameramen to take a variety of interesting pictures of students and teachers at both work and play.

A bake sale was named as the Junior Historians Club's first money-making project of the year.

Brother Rice Clubs Plan Term Activities
