Rosses Recreate Harvest Theme of Thanksgiving

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

Down through the years families and friends have gathered to celebrate Thanksgiving Day with the traditional turkey dinner and all the trimmings.

This year, as in the past, the Frederick Rosses of Haddington have recreated the "harvest theme of thanksgiving" at their house by inviting area families for a pot luck dinner served on long picnic tables festively decorated.

After the menfolk returned from the Lion-Bear football game the menu for the day included wild geese, wild duck, wild garr and turkey. Attending were Dr. and Mrs. James Mintura and the family and the Charles Reeder family of Haddington Road, the Earl Ross family of Bloomfield Hills and the James Wilson family of Detroit. Arriving from Washington, D. C., for the holiday and the week end was Miss Julie Reeder, niece of the Charles Reeders.

RELATIVES OF Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cellar of Rock Spring Drive were invited for Thanksgiving Day. They included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kayson of Rockwood, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Michael Savage of Dearborn and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mandrick of Trenton.

Arriving on Tuesday to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with the Robert Burns family of Top View Court is Dell H. McCoy of Deperre, Wis. Mr. McCoy is the father of Mrs. Burns.

The Vaughn Grooms and children, Kipberly and Jeff, of Tullamore Drive enjoyed the holiday at grandmother's, Mrs. Irmagarth Husemann of Harvard Road. Joining them there will be Groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ollinger of Detroit.

ARRIVING AT the William Hassard home on Cutler Drive for the traditional Thanksgiving holiday dinner were relatives, Mrs. O. H. Morton and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Behan and daughter, Julie, of Grosse Pointe, and Mrs. O. Glen Hamilton of Amherstburg, Ont.

Home from college for the Thanksgiving holiday week end are Robert Rutt, Jr., a freshman at John Carroll University in Ohio and his sister, Kathy, a junior at University of Detroit. Their parents are the Robert Rutts of Lampwick Court.

Last Saturday the Rutts joined a busload of parents in Detroit to attend the Xavier U. of D football game in Cincinnati, O.

THE WILLIAM BURKES of Candlestick Court have their son, Rick, a freshman home from Michigan State, for the traditional Thanksgiving turkey and for the week end.

Tolly Jo Dickson, a junior at Michigan State, was scheduled to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dickson of Spur Hill Drive.

Spending Thanksgiving Day with the Donald Clark family of Burnley Drive were relatives of Mrs. Clark, Patrick Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore of Southfield.

PRIVATE CHARLES WHITBREAD, son of the Charles Whitbread's of Tullamore Drive, arrived in Korea for this year of duty with the 13th Signal Battalion cavalry Division. His letters tell of the division's interest in an orphanage there and the work they are doing to help. Charles is a legal secretary at the base.

Prior to leaving for Korea he took his basic training at Fort Knox and received a specialist citation. Charles is a 1964 graduate of Seaholm High School.

House guests at the Whitbread home for the past six weeks has been Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Whitbread of Los Angeles, parents of Mr. Whitbread, who will be moving into an apartment soon in the area after residing in Los Angeles for 17 years.

While the grandparents held down the homestead last week the Whitbread's journeyed to Batavia, N. Y., via Cleveland, where they visited friends.

MRS. CHARLES GILBERT of Top View Drive and relatives, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Holmes and Mrs. and Mrs. James C. Holmes of Birmingham, flew to Los Angeles for a real estate convention. During their week's stay they toured Disneyland and visited friends.

Gathering at the Gilbert home for the Thanksgiving holiday will be the Holmes' relatives and Mrs. Gilbert's mother, Mrs. Charles Gilbert of Algonac, Mich.

THE CONCORD Green Garden Club held its November meeting for members and guests at the home of Mrs. Wallace McWhirter of Lampwick Lane. Co-hosting were Mrs. Raymond Abondi and Mrs. Frederick Arari.

Christmas decorating ideas and assembly instruction were given the group by guest speaker Mrs. Ray Hammel of Lamp-lighter Lane. In the weeks before Christmas the club plans to hold afternoon and evening holiday workshops.

Appointed historian of the club at the November meeting was Mrs. Joseph Silk.

THE CONCORD GREEN subdivision held its third annual dinner party on Saturday evening. The 25 couples met for cocktails at the inn at seven.

Planning the successful event were chairman, Mr. and Mrs. William Burke of Candlestick Court and committee members Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rutt, Mr. and Mrs. Gibb Medley and Mr. and Mrs. James Carr.

The Richard Garrisons of Lampwick Court announce the arrival of a daughter, Susan, born on Nov. 10.

The Garrisons have three other children, David, Richard and Debbie.

MRS. JOHN SLAVIN of Haddington Road invited a group of 15 friends to bring a sandwich and spend the day at her pine cone wreath workshop. Mrs. Donald Dever of the Berkeley Branch of the WNFCA, instructed the group in making the permanent 24-inch assorted cone-and-nut wreaths.

Collecting and baking the variety of cones for the past month were area guests, Mrs. Keith Ackley, Mrs. John Hall, Mrs. Richard Hespelder, Mrs. James Pearse, Mrs. Edwin Swanson, Mrs. Charles Heinan, Mrs. S. Kenney McGraw and Mrs. Richard Berbiest.

January Bride

The engagement of Ann Marie Carr to David Paul Derleth, son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul E. Derleth of Ferndale, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Carr of Traverse City. She is a graduate of Traverse City High School and is a senior at Eastern Michigan University, affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority. Mr. Derleth graduated from Detroit Country Day School and the University of Michigan. He is now a junior in the University of Michigan Medical School where he is a member of Nu Sigma Nu professional fraternity. The wedding will take place Jan. 2.
