Scholars Aided By Hospital Dinner Dance

Pleasure mixed with business was the order of the evening when Dr. & Mrs. Robert C. Belf, 2433 Wembley Lane, Birmingham, entertained Detroit Osteopathic Hospital staff members and their wives at a cocktail party last Thursday.

Husbands and wives have been combining their efforts and ideas for the hospital's forthcoming Holiday Benefit Dinner Dance to be held Dec. 3 at the Bonnie Brook Country Club.

The ladies of the hospital auxiliary, headed by cochairman Mrs. Belf and Mrs. Edward Loniewski, have long been working on the gala event—proceeds of which will go to the American Osteopathic Scholarship Fund to train Osteopathic physicians of the future.

Jr. Women's Club Has Holiday Plans

Following the success of their charity card party, members of the Birmingham Junior Women's Club will relax at their Tuesday meeting.

A Bloomfield High School group, the "Jills", will entertain with holiday songs. Hostesses for the evening will be medaimes Otto Rosenbusch, Russell Frye and Robert Williams.

The agenda will include making plans for the annual family sleigh ride to be held Dec. 20 featuring "Santa Claus."

An Indian Family's Dinner? Turkey - 'Like Everyone Else'

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN MI 7-2324

"Why can't we have a turkey like everyone else?" asked Rita, Sheila, Ashok and Audrey of their parents.

"Why not?" answered Dr. and Mrs. Ananda Prasad who have lived on W. Long Lake Road for the past year but who are natives of Patna, India.

So, Mrs. Prasad roasted a turkey Thursday, only the second one she has ever prepared, and served it with all the traditional accompaniments to her family.

Rita, the Prasad's eldest daughter, attends Bloomfield Hills Junior High. Sheila, Audrey and their brother, Ashok, go to Pine Lake School.

"The children love it here," said their mother.

Dr. Prasad is associate professor of internal medicine at Wayne State University. Mrs. Prasad, also a doctor, Dr. Arayabala Prasad ("Everyone calls me Arabela"), works twice a week at one of the Planned Parenthood clinics in Detroit.

AFTER HAVING had their last five Thanksgiving dinners in hotels in Adelaide, Australia, at affairs sponsored by the Australian-American Club, the Burke Hydes especially enjoyed the holiday in their new home on Walnut Lake Road.

Guests from other states and Canada are in town to spend the long holiday week end with their families.

Mrs. Arthur Crumb is here from Belle River, Ont., to be with her son's family, the Kenneth Crumbs of Ballantrae Road.

TWO NEPHEWS of Mrs. J. James Klasermer, who are freshmen in colleges in Ohio are staying with their aunt's family on Kingsmill Drive.

They are William Harvey of Newport, R.I., who is attending Denison University, and his first cousin, Richard Harlow of Middletown, R.I., a student at Baldwin-Wallace College.

HOUSE GUESTS of the Robert Donleys of Braemore Trail are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Donley, of Buchanan, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooke of Woodlind Drive have as guests his mother, Mrs. John Cooke of Union City, N.J., and his uncle, Mr. Leo Franz of Brooklyn, N.Y.

To grandmother's house they went! Dr. and Mrs. John Barrett and their seven children of Sutters Lane had Thanksgiving dinner in Grosse Pointe with his mother, Mrs. J. Lee Barrett.

GRANDMOTHER Ferguson, on the other hand, came from Detroit to spend the day with her daughter's family, the John Ackermans of Idlewyle Road.

The Gerald Berry family of Portland Court and the Eugene Bulgozdy family of Long Lake Shores Drive were in Farmington Thursday, guests for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Don Lord.

Katie Marie Caulley and her

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Moore, 496 S. Glenhurst, who moved here Sept. 28 from Raleigh, N. C.? He is a marketing representative with Armstrong Cook Co. They have a son, Brett, eight and a half months. She is affiliated with the Junior League of Birmingham.

dad, John Caulley, of Pine Lake Road are off to Detroit Saturday morning for the annual father-daughter breakfast at the Recess Club.

THE EPISCOPAL Churchwomen of the Church of the Holy Trinity will meet at the church Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. for luncheon and a Christmas workshop.

Special guests will be ladies from St. Luke's Episcopal Church Home in Highland Park.

Also on Tuesday the Mothers Club of Our Lady of Refuge Church will hold a luncheon and fashion show at Edgewood Country Club.

Guests are welcome and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Charles Myers of Portland Court.

MR. AND MRS. Jock Gunn of Quanton Road returned Nov. 24 from a week's stay in Italy. The weather was perfect as they toured Rome, Naples, Sorrento, Amalfi and Capri. The only minor disappointment was a rough sea which prevented them from visiting the Blue Grotto.

Leslie Cox of Walnut Lake Road arrived home Monday from Milwaukee where he had attended the week-long annual convention of the board of directors of the National Chinchilla Breeders Association.

AT AN investiture ceremony Monday at Meadow Lake School, eight girls became full-fledged Brownies of Troop 922. They are Lisa Renner, Karla Gayer, Cindy Herzberg, Julie Klein, Gail Baugher, Lois McIntyre, Debra Anderson and Leigh Anderson.

Troop leader is Mrs. Richard Bannister of Barramoor Road. Mrs. Donald Urban is assistant leader.

A newcomer in town is Barbara Guraki who was born Nov. 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Guraki of Raven Court. The Gurakis have two older children, Catho, 6, and Peter, 4.
