Whites Are Active In Theater Group

By ELLI BLAUMAN

Dramatics and the stage have long been among the special interests of Dr. and Mrs. Donal White of Cline Drive, who moved from Grose Pointe to Huntley a year ago.

Both were members of the Grose Pointe Theatre group which called upon their talents again this fall.

Sally, who had previously directed several plays for the group, was asked to take charge of their production of "See How They Run," while her husband, a past president of the group and winner of their best actor award for his work in "Send Me No Flowers" (the Rock Hudson role, no less) last year, played one of the leading roles in the comedy which ran for seven nights recently.

Another area resident, Mrs. Bud Worden, recently of Grose Pointe Farms, now of Bingham Farms, also worked on the production end of the play which, by the way, was very successful.

THIRTY-ONE members and guests of the Rachel Mary Guild of the Redeemer Lutheran Church of Birmingham met last week at the Amber Drive home of Mrs. H. E. Hesselberg, chairman of the affair.

After luncheon there was a short business meeting, followed by an auction of hand-made aprons, jewelry, candles, and slippers, as well as home-made jams, jellies, pickles, Christmas cookies and other baked goods.

The cohostess was Mrs. Edwin C. Schreck and the auctioneer was Mrs. Otto Melke.

Among the guests was Mrs. Eugene Hesselberg of Des Plaines, Ill., who has been visiting her son and his family for several weeks. She was joined by more of the family on Thanksgiving when the W. S. Keith family, also of Des Plaines, arrived at the Hesselberg home for several days.

Another family member who came home for turkey dinner is daughter Penny, a senior at Wittenberg. She drove home with Twink Sturgeon of Locherbie Road and Twink's roommate, Ann Crowe, who will be the Sturgeon's house guest through the week end.

MR. AND Mrs. Henry M. Stahl, and Wendy, and Jeffrey moved from their Beverly Road residence last week to a brand new home on Lincolnshire East in Georgetown Green.

The new residents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Horan of Detroit. The Stahls returned to their old neighborhood on Thanksgiving, as they were invited to have dinner with the Donald Griffin family, also of Beverly Road.

MEMBERS OF the West Beverly Hills Bowling League held their annual "turkey shoot" at the Birmingham Lanes last week where five winners received Thanksgiving dinners.

Mrs. Ann Baehler of Locherbie Road, Mrs. Irene Perkins of Hillcrest Blvd., Mrs. Lillian Leiby of Ingleswood, Mrs. Ruth Keene of Evergreen Road, and Mrs. Vi Htner of Royal Oak all bowled the highest number of pins over the averages for three games to qualify for the awards.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Borbey of Mexico City, Mexico, and daughter Carol and Paul, Jr., are arriving tomorrow to spend two months in Beverly Hills.

While here they will attend daughter Barbara's wedding in Detroit on Dec. 5, and spend some time with Mr. Borbey's sister and brother-in-law, the Otto Melkes of Beverly Road.

THE VALLEY Woods Garden Club held its November meeting at the Hampton Road home of Mrs. Lewis Dempsey where members heard area resident Mrs. George Engelhard, who is also the state convention chairman of the Michigan Division of the WNFCA, speak.

Mrs. Engelhard's message of conservation included plans for the preservation of the Lakeville swamp area.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Fred Westbury, Mrs. Leon Mirbach, and Mrs. Gordon Andrus.

The club's Christmas workshop was held last week at the home of Mrs. Donald Van Every where members made fruit and vegetable arrangements for the holidays under the tutelage of Mrs. Wilson McClellan.

Guest Mrs. William Westcott of Lincoln Drive showed wreaths and Christmas decorations she had made.

The women are busily preparing for their Christmas luncheon to be held on Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. Hans Frederickson of Bellevue Trail. Mrs. Russell Seeburger, chairman of the luncheon, can be contacted for reservations.

MR. AND Mrs. Beltrum Cox of Sheridan Drive and Mr. and Mrs. William Frasure of Beverly Road became grandparents again when David and Diann (Cox) Frasure

Woman's Club Meets For Benefit Coffee

A benefit coffee for arthritis was the purpose of a gathering of the Birmingham Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. Victor L. Mould. Members of the hostess living department were hosted with friends and members of other departments as guests. Christmas bells will ring out at the Birmingham Woman's Club's Christmas Tea to be held at The Birmingham Community

House on Dec. 1 at 12:30 p.m., when Rodney M. Petersen will conduct the women's hand bell choir. Honored guests for the day are members of the Birmingham Junior Woman's Club.
