

Fashion Show To Benefit Needy Youths

A child giving to a child is the true meaning of Christmas. And, for the 11th consecutive year, the Detroit Osteopathic Women's Club and their children will support the Ruth Alden Dress Drive—an annual project of The Detroit Free Press in association with Goodfellows.

This year the "Fashionette" will be held at the Oakland Hills Country Club on December 2 with the very young modeling fashions. Privately purchased and made dresses along with cash donations will be given to the less fortunate children of the Detroit area.

Hostesses for the event will be Mrs. Paul Trimmer of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. John Ziegler of Birmingham.

PROGRAM CHAIRMEN. Mrs. Joseph R. Walczak of Dearborn, and Mrs. Frank McDevitt of Farmington, have planned the afternoon. The children will sing carols directed by Mrs. Charles H. Vortziere, who each year entertains with her accordion, and the star of the show will be the chimpanzee, "Mr. Chipps."

Decorations with a Christmas theme have been done by Mrs. Paul Raza of Southfield.

A Job Well Done

Christmas Brunch Unites Delta Zetas

Group I of the Oakland County Delta Zeta alumnae chapter will meet on Wed., Dec. 2 at 10:30 a.m. for a Christmas brunch at the home of Mrs. Forbes Hasal, 946 Pine Hill, Bloomfield Hills.

They have planned a "Cookie Exchange" as their program for the day. Each member is going to bring a couple of their favorite cookie recipes and a few samples for tasting. They are hoping to get some new ideas for their Christmas baking.

As their philanthropic project, Group I writes each month to a patient in the Carville Hospital in Carville, La. and remembers him on his birthday with a gift. They act as a family to this man who has no family of his own. This month each member of the group is bringing an inexpensive gift to make up a Christmas package to be wrapped and sent to him.

Annual Bazaar Set By Eastern Star

Birmingham Chapter No. 220 Order of the Eastern Star, is holding its annual bazaar Dec. 5 from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple, 357 S. Woodward, Bloomfield Hills.
