Hostesses

Browning of Hersheyvale, Charles and John work together.

Welcome this week to Marilyn and Gerald Gordon who have just moved from Huntington Woods into their new house on Wellington. Gerald is in the building-contracting business and Marilyn is a former elementary teacher in the Detroit schools.

Both are U of M graduates. Charles belongs to Pi Lambda Phi fraternity. They have two children, Deborah, 9, in the fourth grade, and Brian, 4.

AN INTRODUCTION is also in order to an especially interesting new resident, Mrs. W. McKay Skillman, on Brandingham. Mrs. Skillman's husband, who passed away last June, was a judge in Michigan for almost 40 years, giving him the longest tenure in our history. He had countless philanthropic activities in which his wife, too, is active. Mrs. Skillman organized the first Ruth Alden dress drive 28 years ago and is still active in judging Ruth Alden dress contests. She has replaced her husband on the board of the eastern division of the Salvation Army, and is currently busy with their fair.

SHE BELONGS to the Lawyers' Wives of Mich., Women's City Club social affairs committee and Rosedale Progressive club. She has two sons. James, a lawyer, lives with his wife Eleanor, who used to be television's Merry Melody, and their two children at Forrestbrook in Farmington Township.

William, a CPA, lives in Detroit with his wife and two children. Mrs. Skillman loves Franklin and is very interested in the history of the area. Her husband was a native of Oxford, Mich., and the family still has a farm on the county line. Her husband's grandfather led Custer's horses into battle.
