S'field Optimists, Wives Compete in Treasure Hunt

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

From barbecue stoves to a flag at half mast, totaling about 50 miles in all, went the stout hardy members of the Southfield Optimist Club and their wives on a treasure hunt Saturday evening.

This, the second annual treasure hunt, was sponsored by Mike and Carol Rolph and Art and Catherine Greene. The two couples were last year's winners.

This year's winners were Art Pelletier and his wife Maxine, Jim and Emogene Davis and Mrs. Rolph's parents, the Blans.

The group gathered at the Greene home on Forestview to begin the hunt and climaxed the evening with refreshments at a pancake house.

Back in the area after a five-year absence are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christenson with children, Jack, Jr., Debbie and Tom.

The family spent the last five years in Brookfield, Wis. They recently returned to their old home at 18745 Delores in Lathrup Village. Mrs. Christenson is associated with Ling-Temco-Vaught Corp.

MR. AND MRS. STEVE Adams of Delores, Lathrup Village, welcomed Mrs. Adam's sister and brother-in-law for the Thanksgiving holiday. The three Adams girls, Lynn, Amy and Jill, were anticipating the visit of their cousins with such excitement they could hardly wait for turkey day.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Braccio with Carol, Cynthia, Joe, Jimmy, Tommy, Jeannie and Michael will return to their home in Clinton, Iowa, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kurdilla of Rock Creek Drive spent last week end in the Windy City where they celebrated their 19th wedding anniversary. Saturday afternoon they watched the nation's No. 1 team, Notre Dame, down
