How's this for a football oddity. Did you know there was once a college football game in which one team did not run or pass the ball at any time during the entire game, and still won it. It happened to Kentucky the college of the college of the the work of t

In a game in the early 1909s, Kentucky decided to kick on first down every time they got the ball. They did kick on first down throughout the game. They never ran the ball and never passed. And they won 12-6 by recovering two fumbles by their opportunity of the control of the Ever wonder why the point - after touchdown in football is sometimes called the "conversion"? . . Well, in the early days of football, all that a team got from opportunity to "convert" that TD into points . . . The touchdown counted only if the "conversion", or kick after touchdown was successfully made.
