Annual BHAC Dance Attended by 94 Couples

By ELL BLAUMAN MI 7-1465

One of the first events of the Christmas season took place last Saturday evening at the Birmingham Country Club when 94 couples, all members of the Beverly Hills Athletic Club, attended their four annual BHAC dance.

Several pre-dance cocktail parties were held, among them those hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Embrey of Hillcrest Blvd., the Marvin Lausens of Elizabeth Road, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Anderson of Lauderdale Drive and Jack and Lorna Clemens of Auburn Drive.

Many of them women chose to wear their holiday reds and how-cades which added color to the already gala affair. Music was by Hal Gordon's orchestra.

Heading the committee which planned the evening was Mrs. Harold Chinn of Pierce Road, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Anderson of Lauderdale Drive and King Ruby of Locherbie Road.

The other committee members included Mrs. Harlan Hanson of Dunlame, Mr. Roger Clancy of Sheridan Drive, Mrs. James Barone of Cline Drive, Mrs. William Cloutier of Steep Hollow Lane, Mrs. Lee Anderson and Mrs. Lee Embrey.

HENRY BAJGAR, professor of arts at the University of Moravskia Ostrava and a renowned abstract painter in Czechoslovakia, recently spent two days with Mrs. Frank Jankie, Frank, Jr. and Barbara of Locherbie Road.

Prof. Bajgar was a member of a cultural group which was flown to Canada for 10 days, but while Mrs. Jankie's married daughter, Wanda, and her husband Dan Barta, a cousin of the professor, learned of his visit they arranged to pick him up at Niagara Falls and bring him here.

During his brief visit the professor spent part of a day at the Greenfield School where Mrs. Jankie teaches first grade, observing an American classroom first-hand. Mrs. Lee Anderson of Lauderdale University campus where Frank, Jr., is a student, before flying back to New York to rejoin his group.

One week later the Jankies had another visitor, again a distant cousin, from Czechoslovakia. Dr. Zdenek Dienstler, director of the Institute for Nuclear Medicine at the Charles University of Prague, came to Beverly Hills to relax for one day.

Dr. Dienstler is making a tour of several American universities, having already stopped in New York, Washington and Philadelphia. After his day with the Jankies, he headed for Harvard University and the completion of his tour.

MRS. DONALD T. Griffin of

Beverly Road hosted a card party last week which was attended by Mrs. Donald Conrad, Mrs. William Finamore, Mrs. Otto Melis, Mrs. Robert Bentz, Mrs. Gordon Stauffer, Mrs. Michael Delida, Mrs. A. Del Veru, Mrs. Loren Mills, Mrs. Ralph Thron, Mrs. Thomas Honan and Mrs. Henry Stahl.

Since this neighborhood group enjoys not only bridge and pinocle, but also each other's company, the women decided to form a monthly card club.
