Local Woman New President Of TB Society

Mrs. John D. (Norma) Richardson, of Birmingham, is the new president of the Women's Committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Society. The TB and Health Society is Wayne County's Christmas Seal agency. Mrs. Richardson recently served as chairman for the 13th annual Cinderella Ball. She was elected president of the Women's Committee at the annual meeting of the group during a brunch at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel Nov. 16. Mrs. Richardson succeeds Mrs. Arthur R. Pfannenschmidt, who served as president for two years. The newly-elected president, like Mrs. Pfannenschmidt, is an industrious person.

BESIDES BEING an attractive wife and doting mother, she has participated in Girl Scout activities, United Foundation, served as program chairman for the Carousel Ball, is active in the Women's Republican Committee, the Community House in Birmingham and in church affairs. During World War II she was a lieutenant in the Navy Nurse Corps, serving for 14 months on the first hospital ship that was in the South Pacific. Later, she served with the first group in the South Pacific for the Guadalcanal invasion. She later served state-
